Day 1: Leg 1 of 2

Sarnia to Sombra – 38 km

Area services along the route: Accommodations, campgrounds, cafés, restaurants, shopping, groceries, banking, bike shop, attractions and trails.

- Start your ride on the shores of the St. Clair River in the community of Point Edward under the Blue Water Bridge. Follow paved trails and quieter city roads south through Sarnia.
- Caution on Vidal St. S, as this road has a higher volume of traffic and larger vehicles.
- After 11 km you will connect with the St. Clair Parkway, which offers wide, paved shoulders and great views of the St. Clair River.
- Take a break in Mooretown (23 km) at the riverside Mooretown Centennial Park and make time to visit the Moore Museum.
- Stop for lunch in Sombra (38 km) at The Aft Cabin Restaurant and watch the Bluewater Ferries make the river crossings. Also explore the Sombra Museum and learn about the local history of the area.

Day 1: Leg 2 of 2

Sombra to Wallaceburg – 23 km

Area services along the route: Accommodations, campgrounds, cafes, restaurants, shopping, banking, attractions and trails.

- From Sombra, continue south for 6 km along the St. Clair Parkway following the eastern shore of the St. Clair River with views across to the U.S.
- Stop in Port Lambton for refreshments at one of the stores in town. Take in the sights and sounds of the St. Clair River from the picnic benches in Dedecker Park and reflect on Al Capone and other notorious bootleggers who frequented the shores of the area during the Prohibition era.
- South of Port Lambton, continue for 8 km on St. Clair Parkway and ride inland and through rich farmland and quaint rural communities before heading west into Wallaceburg, where your day of riding ends.
- Caution on Dufferin Avenue as this road has a higher volume of traffic and larger vehicles.
- Situated at the forks of the Sydenham River, explore Wallaceburg by foot or bike. Tour the Wallaceburg and District Museum and learn about the area's agricultural, industrial and maritime heritage. Perhaps you'll uncover the truth of the Baldoon Mystery, a unique tale of witchcraft in Wallaceburg.
- Stop in for dinner at the Black Goose Grill and enjoy local pub fare on their riverside patio.

Starting point: Wallaceburg

Day 2: Leg 1 of 2

Wallaceburg to Dresden – 19 km

Area services along the route: Accommodations, cafés, restaurants, groceries, bike shop/ services, shopping, banking, and attractions. No services are available between Wallaceburg and Dresden.

- Today's route offers more rural riding along country roads in the region's hinterlands. Ride past working farms and rural landscapes while taking in the smells and sounds of Ontario's agricultural countryside.
- Don't miss Uncle Tom's Cabin, a National Historic Site located just east of Dresden. This open-air museum pays tribute to local contributions to the abolition movement and the Underground Railroad. A visit offers a unique opportunity to learn about the rich heritage of Ontario's Black community.
- From here, it's a short ride into Dresden (2 km) and Bella's Café, a great local spot to stop for lunch offering fresh, local and healthy food options. Also in town is the Dresden Raceway, where visitors and locals alike adorn their finest clothes to watch the races.
- Need bike supplies or service? Make sure to stop at Clark's Sports and More before crossing the Sydenham River.

Optional Unpaved Routing – Trans Canada Trail (16 km):

Extend your journey an extra day or two and spend time exploring the area's rich nature:

- Head north on Murray St. through Wallaceburg to Wallace St. E.
- Go east along Wallace St., following the southern shore of the Sydenham River. Wallace St. E. eventually turns into McGregor Line.
- Continue east on this unpaved road for 4 km before connecting to a short stretch of paved road along John Park Line. Don't miss the left turn on Starkweather Line, which brings you back close to the river for another 10 km of picturesque rural river riding. Starkweather Line eventually turns into Glasgow Line.
- Connect onto Uncle Tom's Rd., which leads you south to Uncle Tom's Cabin, a National Historic Site located just east of Dresden.
