Welcome to the STEVENS POINT AREA

DISCOVER the place to craft a perfect vacation. Sample a beer alongside the brewmaster who dreamed up the recipe, taste an inspired dish made with local produce or take in the beautiful work of an acclaimed nature photographer. Explore the charming communities of Stevens Point, Plover, Amherst, Nelsonville, Rosholt, and Bancroft, as well as the Lake DuBay region. We're a place that makes great things—use this guide to find ideas for your next getaway.

GET TO KNOW THE STEVENS POINT AREA

UW-Stevens Point is the first university in Wisconsin to have 100% of its electricity come from renewable sources.

Lake DuBay, a 6,800-acre impoundment of the Wisconsin River that's a top fishing spot, is a man-made lake that was created in the 1940s with the installation of a hydroelectric dam.

Heritage Park in Plover is filled with preserved historic buildings, including a working blacksmith shop.

Downtown Stevens Point is a super-sized selfie spot, featuring Point Brewery's #grabtheglass mural and a dozen other larger-than-life works of art.

The Rising Star Mill in Nelsonville is one of the oldest mills in Wisconsin and today hosts an annual art show and sale, as well as several concerts.

The Stevens Point Farmers' Market has been held in the same two-square-block area in downtown Stevens Point since 1847.

Stevens Point Brewery, founded in 1857, is one of the oldest continually operating breweries in the country.

There are actually two Portage County Fairs held every summer in the Stevens Point Area—one in Amherst and one in Rosholt.

ARTS & CULTURE BUCKET LIST

DON'T MISS THESE QUINTESSENTIAL ACTIVITIES

Check out the work of local artists: Head to an art museum, gallery, or see artwork outdoors in the Stevens Point Sculpture Park. Meet artists, and get an inside look at their studios, during the Hidden Studios Art Tour.

Take a selfie with a mural: Say cheese and visit the iconic murals dotted throughout the region, like the Fox Mural on Dive Point Scuba.

Grab a ticket and see a show: Grab a ticket for an upcoming performance of a local production or a national act. Check out the events calendar on StevensPointArea.com for a complete list.

Flex your creative muscle: Take a class or workshop to create your own masterpiece, from painting to jewelry making and everything in between.

DISCOVER THESE UNIQUE INDOOR ATTRACTIONS

Looking for indoor fun in the Stevens Point Area? Here are a few sure to hit the mark.

THE NIGHT SKY

Turn your eyes skyward during interactive presentations at this planetarium and observatory. The best part? The planetarium shows are held regardless of the weather.

MUSEUM FUN

Explore exhibits on wildlife, geology and paleontology at the Museum of Natural History. Learn about the state's environmental history at the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame.

ARTS ACTIVITIES

Get creative! Take a class at Blue Bead & Rock Shop or pop into the art room at the Central Wisconsin Children's Museum. Another option: create a unique piece to take home at Clay Corner Studio. For more, plan a trip to Nelsonville to take a class at the Tomorrow River Homestead or Judah Studios.

Outdoor Recreation

GET ON THE WATER IN CENTRAL WISCONSIN

The Stevens Point Area is a paddler's playground, with plenty of water to explore and options for paddlers of all abilities, from quiet backwaters to fast-moving current.

Families and beginners should check out the calm waters of Lake Joanis in Stevens Point, a picturesque paddling location that features pristine water and easy access.

Intermediate paddlers can head to the Upper Plover River near Jordan Park, where they'll find generally flat water with some rocky stretches to navigate. The Tomorrow River in Amherst offers a meandering route through woods and fields, passing the historic Rising Star Mill.

The adventurous canoeist may wish to poke around the islands and spend time fishing, bird-watching or animal viewing on the Stevens Point Flowage of the Wisconsin River North section.

GREAT OUTDOORS BUCKET LIST

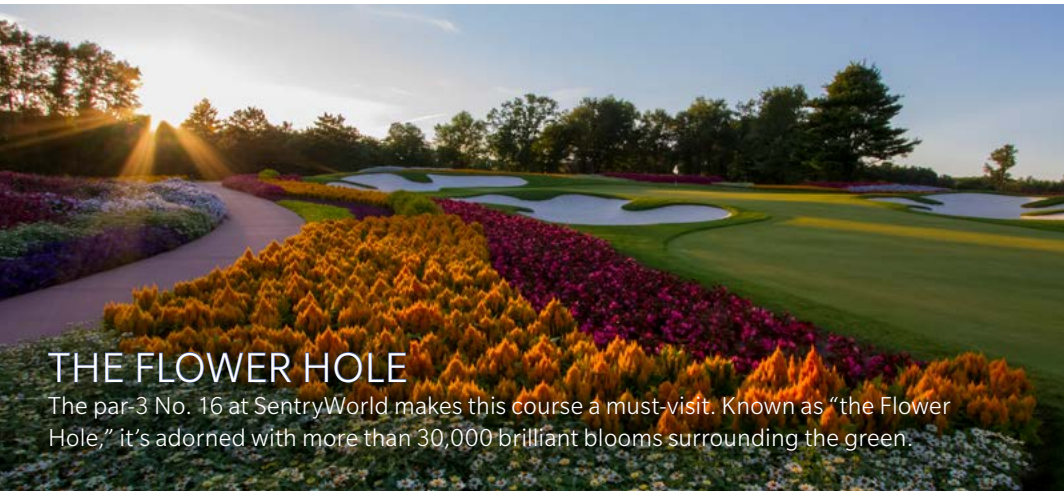

DON'T MISS THESE AWESOME OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

✓ Winter sports on the Tomorrow River State Trail: It's open to bicyclists, hikers, joggers and horseback riders. In winter, it's an excellent spot for snowmobiling, cross-country skiing and snowshoeing. This trail offers 24 miles of scenic glacial terrain and picturesque farm country.

✓ Mountain biking at Standing Rocks County Park: This park features 13 miles of rolling trails for hiking and biking as well as a disc golf course and dog exercise area. Trail passes are required and available at the trailhead.

✓ Explore one of the regions State Natural Areas: There are 11 in the Stevens Point Area to explore. For families with young or inexperienced hikers, head to New Hope Pines State Natural Area to hike the 173-acre park. It isn't far from the best beach in the Stevens Point Area - Sunset Lake.

✓ Hitting the links at SentryWorld: Spend your day at this award-winning 18-hole golf course. Rain? No problem. SentryWorld has you covered—head inside to work on your game at the indoor range or golf simulator.

THE FLOWER HOLE

The par-3 No. 16 at SentryWorld makes this course a must-visit. Known as "the Flower Hole," it's adorned with more than 30,000 brilliant blooms surrounding the green.

ON THE TRAILS

Portage County's abundant outdoor recreational options provide for year-round fun.

Whether you are hitting the popular Green Circle Trail, strolling through the art filled Stevens Point Sculpture Park, forging a path on the Ice Age Trail or exploring trails through the George Mead Wildlife Area, each route will lead to fun.

Pack a snack (or a picnic) for your adventure. Before you hit the trail, be sure to pick up these hiking must-haves.

On Point with... JOHN PAWLAK

OWNER
Point Area Bicycle Service

In his younger days, John Pawlak caught air and chased trophies as a BMX bicycle racer. Today his passion for cycling rolls on at Point Area Bicycle Service, the store he opened in downtown Stevens Point in 2012.

He recommends that riders who are new to the area start with the "gem" of Stevens Point Area bicycling—the 27-mile Green Circle Trail.

Pawlak said road bikers should start with the "Little Chicago" loop—a ride that heads west of Stevens Point to Little Chicago Road. That trip can be as short as 10 miles, with longer options possible.

He also has a route that beer lovers will want to sample: a nearly 50-mile loop that stops at Central Waters Brewing Company in Amherst and O'so Brewing Company in Plover before ending at Stevens Point Brewery.

"It's a cool little brewery tour," he said.

Back in town, one of Pawlak's favorite refueling spots is Father Fats Public House.

Riders will find additional refreshments in Pawlak's shop, which has a beer bar on site. It features Wisconsin beers, ciders and sodas, including local favorites from the Central Wisconsin Craft Collective.

EXPLORE THE GREEN CIRCLE TRAIL

Hike or bike these segments of the 27-mile recreational trail that passes through the Stevens Point Area.

- University Trail: See the Schmeeckle Reserve Visitor Center, which hosts the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame.
- Brickyard Trail: This trail offers access to the Stevens Point Sculpture Park, home to outdoor artwork from local, regional, and national artists.
- Riverfront Trail: Just off the trail is the K.A.S.H. (Kids Are Special Here) Playground, a fully accessible play area.
- River Pines Trail: This is one of the best places to see wildlife on the Green Circle Trail.
- Paper Mill Trail: This scenic trail is a bird-watching hotspot.
- Iverson Park Trail: Explore the largest city park in Stevens Point, with amenities like a beach and trails.
- Moses Creek Trail: You'll find a trailside 18-hole disc golf course.

Learn more with the Pedal, Paddle, Hike Guide.

It includes information about the best trails, paddling routes and state natural areas to help plan your next outdoor adventure. See maps, get trail info and more. Order the guide at StevensPointArea.com or by calling 715-344-2556.

How to PADDLEQUEST

LOOKING FOR AN ADVENTURE?
Join the flotilla at PaddleQuest, a paddling-based adventure with games and scavenger hunts that provide new challenges around every corner. The event, held every August, has been featured in Rolling Stone, and it’s as fun as it is unique—think canoeing meets Comic-Con. Here’s everything you need to know to PaddleQuest like a pro.

• JOIN A TEAM. PaddleQuest is a team event, featuring co-ed teams and teams of two. Looking for a partner? Organizers can help you find other ‘questers in need of a teammate.

• BYOB (BRING YOUR OWN BOAT) OR RENT from a local business. Canoes, kayaks, and paddleboards are available at several local businesses, including Nature Treks and UW-Stevens Point’s Outdoor Rentals program.

• GEAR UP! Bring a bag to keep your tokens and treasures secure. You will also want gloves, a hat, water and snacks to help you power through your day.

• ASK QUESTIONS and interact with others. Always ask the staff for magic items and chat with all characters at a stop—someone may have items or information you need!

• KEEP MOVING. The river is too big to spend time waiting in line. If there are multiple teams ahead of you at any given stop, move on and return later.

• ENJOY THE QUEST! Remember: the goal is to enjoy games and adventure while protecting local waterways.

SCULPTURE FINDS IN THE STEVENS POINT AREA

STEVENS POINT SCULPTURE PARK

This beautiful park features works by local, regional and national artists. The 20 acre park is open year-round from sunrise to sunset and admission is always free. Plan to explore the sculptures and art along the trail, both along the pathways, and tucked into the woods. Don't be afraid to touch and interact with the pieces, spin DeeDee Morrison's 'Landscape with Perspective' and crawl under and gaze up in Mike Godell's 'Pulsating Vessels'. In the winter, it is a perfect route for snowshoeing. In the summer, don't forget bug spray!

SCULPTURE QUEST

A first-of-its-kind geocache artventure, Sculpture Quest encourages trekkers of all ages and abilities to search for small iron sculptures hidden in nature areas across the Stevens Point Area! Use the coordinates below to find the art. Then post pictures of your discoveries to Instagram using #pocosculpturequest!

THE ART OF SHOPPING

Artists and art lovers have long been drawn to the beauty of central Wisconsin, and there's a lot of beauty and creativity to explore in our shops and attractions. You'll find small retailers that showcase unique home items and apparel, as well as outdoor art that makes a beautiful backdrop to a day spent shopping.

For a mix of retail and art, visit Q Gallery or plan to attend the annual Hidden Studios Art Tour (held each fall) for high-quality pieces from local artists. Create your own work of art at Blue Bead & Rock Shop in Stevens Point or Judah Studios in Nelsonville. If crafting is more your style, visit Herrschners world headquarters in Stevens Point to stock up on supplies—it's been a source for crafters since 1899.

In Amherst, don't overlook the humble Falcon One Stop. Head in to see a unique collection of pottery, work of local artisans and a collection of consignment items. Afterwards, head across the street to pick up a sweet treat from the Village Hive Bakery, to refuel for more shopping with a stop in Plover. Pop into the beautiful shops Beyond Ordinary and Sweet Tea. Continuing in downtown Stevens Point, take time between stores to admire the architecture of the historic downtown Stevens Point district and keep an eye out for murals.

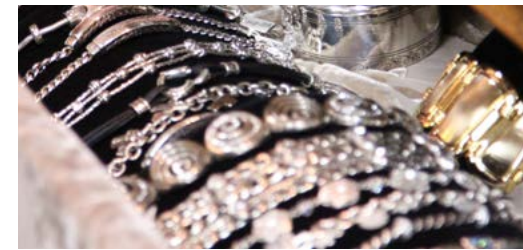

Continue your shopping by checking out some local favorites like Girls In Pearls Boutique, Call It New/Call It Antique, Agora or Real Deals.

VINTAGE FINDS IN CENTRAL WISCONSIN

If you enjoy uncovering history—and even bringing a bit of it home—the Stevens Point Area is a great place to explore.

The area's rich history is alive in attractions like the Rising Star Mill in Nelsonville, which dates to back to 1855, or Beth Israel Synagogue in Stevens Point, established in 1905. Other places to check out: the historic buildings in Plover's Heritage Park and Firehouse No. 2, which preserves the firefighting history of Stevens Point.

The Stevens Point Area is also home to some great antique stores. Start at Antiquity Acres in Amherst. They sell a variety of antiques, gift items, garden needs, handmade items and more. In Stevens Point, Call it New/Call it Antique is a mall packed with vintage and antique items.

Another must-visit mall is Stevens Point's Antique Up, featuring more than 100 booths and vendors. You'll find antique toys, beer memorabilia, classic automobile collectibles and much more.

Two locations to keep you shopping close to home!

When you’re away from home, you want a place to stay that feels comfortable, inviting and relaxing. No matter where you choose to stay during your visit to the Stevens Point Area, you’ll find all that and more.

Choose from a long list of traditional hotels and motels, including one of our newest properties, the beautifully appointed Cobblestone Hotel, or explore a charming bed & breakfast, like A Victorian Swan on Water, Dreams of Yesteryear or Artha Sustainable Living Center.

If you’re feeling outdoorsy, we’ve got cabins ideal for a quiet, waterfront retreat, or campsites guaranteed to keep your little ones active and excited. These affordable options offer sandy beaches for swimming and relaxing, trail access and plenty of kids’ activities.

Or, try a short-term rental, like the newly remodeled historic Claflin House. This beautiful home, built in 1875, is just steps away from the center of Stevens Point, and has been remodeled in the style of country Italian villas. Another option: Country Mission Farm, a comfortable four-bedroom house on a former dairy farm situated along the Little Eau Claire River.

BRINGING THE KIDS?

MUST HAVE: POOL

Check out the water slide at the Holiday Inn, or jump into the salt-water pool at Fairfield. Find a complete list of pools on the Lodging Grid on page 40.

MUST HAVE: FREE BREAKFAST

Book a room, and line-up plans for the most important meal of the day, all in one. Nearly all of the hotels that serve breakfast include a hot breakfast. Check out the free breakfast break-down on page 40.

COUPLES ESCAPE?

MUST HAVE: BAR

Whether you kick off your evening with a cocktail, or you prefer to end there with a night cap, the Amber Grill and the Wissota Chophouse, offer a bar, under the same roof.

MUST HAVE: ROMANTIC PLACE

Rekindle the spark between you and your partner, with a romantic stay at a quaint Bed & Breakfast. If B&B's aren't your thing, check-in to a whirlpool suite to amp up the romance during your stay.

BESTIES GETAWAY?

MUST HAVE: DOWNTIME

Set up homebase, to kick back and relax with your best friends and pick a spot to match your tribe's vibe. Pick a cottage, cabin or a short-term rental to make it all your own.

MUST HAVE: BRUNCH SPOTS

Whether you want to start early or you'd prefer to sleep in, here are a few local favorites: Wooden Chair, Landmark, Father Fats, Sky Club - or breakfast in a glass with a famous Bloody Mary at Rusty's.

COMMUNITY BRAGGING RIGHTS

The Stevens Point Area is a creative hub in Central Wisconsin. If you have never been to the region, you might be surprised by what you find. From the outside, it might appear as an unassuming blend of rural and urban life. Here's a quick guide to a few things that call the Stevens Point Area home.

Head just east of Stevens Point on Highway 10, and you've probably passed the grounds for the world's largest and longest running renewable energy event. The Renewable Energy & Sustainable Living Fair is hosted in Custer each year in June.

The world's largest trivia contest is found here each April. The event, hosted by 90FM at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, lasts 54-hours straight.

Supper clubs are a Wisconsin institution, and in the Stevens Point Area you'll find one that started the first ever refrigerated salad bar. It was debuted at the Sky Club in the 1950's, and the iconic supper club is still in operation today in Plover.

It's more than lip service to sustainability in the Stevens Point Area. The nation's first conservation education major was created here in 1946 and formed into the College of Natural Resources in 1970 at the University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point. Today, you can see more of it's influence when you visit the giant ‘Sand County Bench’ in the Stevens Point Sculpture Park or the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame in the Schmeeckle Reserve.

The secret is out—the Stevens Point Area has received national recognition for its quality of life.

WHERE TO FIND A PERFECT CUP OF COFFEE

The Stevens Point Area has plenty of options for you to get your coffee fix. Whether you prefer a regular ol' cup of joe or fancy a more sophisticated, Instagram-worthy latte, you'll find the perfect cup. Here are some of our favorite spots.

EMY J'S COFFEE HOUSE AND CAFÉ

From open mic nights to singer/songwriter Sundays, cribbage nights and more, there is always something going on at Emy J's! Located next to Main Grain Bakery, Emy J's is your one-stop-shop for coffee, ice cream and delicious food. Many of Emy J's dishes incorporate local ingredients.

RUBY COFFEE ROASTERS

Located in Nelsonville, Ruby Coffee Roasters is a must-stop for any coffee enthusiast. Ruby roasts all their coffee on-site and works directly with coffee producers, exporters and importer partners to achieve sustainable production and a quality product. They also have a tasting room that's open on weekends.

MISSION COFFEE HOUSE

Mission Coffee House is a community-oriented coffee shop that proudly sources, roasts and brews their coffee on-site. With over a dozen ice cream flavors to choose from and a variety of wraps and sandwiches, you won't leave with an empty stomach.

ZEST BAKERY AND COFFEEHOUSE

On warm summer days, Zest's shaded outdoor patio is the place to be, but this place makes great beverages year-round, each based on a seasonal or monthly theme.

BASEMENT BREWHAUS

Everyone is welcome at Basement Brewhaus, located in the UW-Stevens Point Lee Sherman Dreyfus University Center. The establishment doubles as a coffee shop and bar, and it offers an array of coffee drinks, beer and wines.

FRIDAY FISH FRY

Get ready for a casual and laid back evening enjoying a classic Wisconsin Fish Fry in the Stevens Point Area.

Whether you prefer to go the traditional route with a simple breaded Cod or you like the buttery deliciousness of a baked Haddock, the Stevens Point Area has you covered. Pair it with your choice of potato, enjoy the coleslaw and rye bread - and don't forget the tartar sauce!

THREE TO TRY: BLOODY MARYS

The Stevens Point Area takes this classic cocktail to a new level. Here are three you shouldn't miss:

RUSTY'S BACKWATER SALOON:

A local favorite loaded with banana peppers, pepperoncinis, string cheese whip and a beef stick.

FATHER FATS PUBLIC HOUSE:

Boost your brunch with their fully loaded Bloody Mary.

HILLTOP PUB & GRILL: Sample their tasty Bloody Mary that's garnished with olives, celery, mushrooms and pickles—add a jalapeno for a little more spice.

BONUS PICK: POINT BREWERY

If you're lucky, you'll catch the Bloody Mary Beer on tap after a tour.

ICE CREAM LOVER'S GUIDE TO THE STEVENS POINT AREA

The Stevens Point Area is a hot spot for those who love cold treats. Ice cream and soft-serve fans can sample their way through some delicious options.

The only problem: with flavors like Turtle and Banana Man, how does one choose?

King Cone scoops up to 48 homemade flavors daily, including national award-winners.

Need some fresh cheese curds with your cone? Head to Feltz's Dairy Store, which serves 16 different flavors of King Cone ice cream as well as fresh curds daily.

Hungry? Emy J's Coffee House and Café serves delicious Wisconsin ice cream as well as high-end coffee and delicious café items. Belts' Soft Serve in Stevens Point offers towering cones and delicious frozen items—you can't go wrong with a Belt Buster Brownie Sundae or a Crash Flurry.

UNEXPECTED finds & CLASSIC fare

Let's talk about the best spots to explore the local food scene in the Stevens Point Area, from unexpected finds to classic fare.

Get started by visiting a new local favorite, Mama Mai's Noodles. Order a few spring rolls and a bowl of their amazing and authentic Pho. If you've never had it before, it's a hearty and comforting Vietnamese broth-based soup. The best part? It's served with a variety of toppings to make it to your own liking.

In the mood for sushi? In the Stevens Point Area, the go-to spot is Matsu Ya. Here, you can sit at the bar and watch the sushi chefs in action, or you can grab a table and order your favorite rolls. If you are feeling adventurous order the specials.

Think dining next to Chagall, Dali and Picasso is not happening here? Think again. Head over to Muse, in the Sentry Insurance headquarters, where modern art and classic works are the perfect backdrop to artfully made plates and tasty cocktails.

For another upscale dining experience with a twist, don't overlook a-soshel. Here you'll find a Mediterranean inspired experience, with an Italian flair. If you visit, don't skip the olive board, spreads and the cheese board before diving into the pasta dishes.

Looking for the quintessential Wisconsin supper club experience? Check out one of the region's oldest, with the Sky Club, in business since the 1930's or for a more modern twist try Michele's. Start with a cocktail at the bar - like the old fashioned, then retreat to the dining room - and save room for dessert like a grasshopper or a Pink Squirrel!

On Point with... LAYNE COZZOLINO

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Central Rivers Farmshed

On Saturday mornings in downtown Stevens Point, you'll get a taste of how seriously this community takes locally-produced food. You might also run into one of its biggest champions.

Stevens Point's Downtown Farmers' Market has been here for more than a century, in a town square constructed just for this purpose. At the market, you'll find a bounty of farm-fresh goods, and some days, you'll find Layne Cozzolino doing her morning shopping.

"The market is pretty great," said Cozzolino, the head of Central Rivers Farmshed, a local farming advocacy group that helps fertilize the vibrant local food movement in central Wisconsin.

Cozzolino, who owns a farm of her own in Amherst, said there are a lot of passionate local food entrepreneurs in the Stevens Point Area, and they all share a common mission.

"How do we prop each other up and get local food on the map here?" she said.

It's a food scene well worth exploring. Cozzolino recommends visitors check out the Farm Fresh Atlas of Central Wisconsin to find markets.

Stevens Point's only real street-style Mexican restaurant with an authentic menu, the best tequila selection, and hand-crafted cocktails!
