SAINT CHARLES Christmas Traditions

CELEBRATING 45 YEARS

MISSOURI

Wonder. Memories. Tradition. For 45 seasons, Saint Charles Christmas Traditions® has helped create cherished holiday experiences for the young and young at heart. With a unique blend of history, storytelling, and fairy tale whimsy, visitors from around the globe have been transported back in time to an era of yuletide nostalgia and fantasy; where reindeer fly, dapper carolers put a song in your heart, and the concerns of the modern world melt away, allowing you to experience the enchantment of the holiday season like a kid again.

As we celebrate the milestone of our sapphire anniversary, we also commemorate the 250th anniversary of the founding of the City of Saint Charles. As you explore the festive entertainment, characters, and music of Christmas Traditions, we encourage you to explore the vintage beauty of the historic district (decorated in its Victorian holiday finery) where old-world charm meets world class shopping and dining.

Whether the festival is a part of your family's annual tradition, or if this is your first visit, we invite you to be a part of our legacy, where for nearly half a century we have welcomed people to discover their inner-child, discover the wonder, and discover why Saint Charles is the place where Christmas past comes to life.

SANTAS FROM AROUND

The World And The

MAGICAL LEGENDS

Of Christmas

The holiday festivities of Saint Charles Christmas Traditions® are so legendary, that some of the most iconic figures of history, literature, and folklore have traveled from their fanciful realms in order to celebrate with you and your family. From the North Pole to the Land of the Sweets, the Ice Kingdom to Dickensian England, these quirky personalities are eager not only to share their histories, but to bring you into their story. You never know what you might see while exploring Main Street! Be recruited by the Sugarplum Fairy to join the Nutcracker Prince's legion of toy soldiers as they seek to defeat the odious Mouse King, help Bob Cratchit and Tiny Tim attempt to bring a smile to the face of the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge, or learn the finer points of window frosting from Jack Frost and Susie Snowflake.

As you walk down historic Main Street, you'll be travelling to the four corners of the earth (no passport required) as you encounter nearly a dozen international Santas and global gift givers who will share the music and customs of how their native countries celebrate Christmas. And for the first time in festival history, our 45th anniversary season welcomes new friends to help you explore the traditions of New Year's, Chanukah, and Kwanzaa. Swap holiday recipes with the cheerful Italian Christmas witch, La Befana, learn how to play dreidel with Titus Flavius Josephus, and marvel at the local history as Civil War Santa shares tales of the figures and locations along Main Street that figured prominently in the war between the states.

Our dozens of holiday figures each have a commemorative trading card featuring their image and story to share with you as a merry memento of your visit to Christmas Traditions.

TOURNEY THROUGH

A Musical Timeline

The sounds of the season come to life as a charming line-up of musical quartets fill the air with a treasury of Christmas tunes. Journey through a musical timeline as Saint Charles' own Cobblestone Wassailiers sing the most beloved traditional Victorian carols, while the USO Evergreens and Sleighbell Singers cover the favorite holiday standards of the 1940s and the 1950s. Direct from the Land of the Sweets, the Candy Canes offer a variety of musical surprises, while the Nightingales specialize in Civil War-era Christmas songs. For a turn-of-the-century treat, don't miss The Singin' Snowmen, a chilling barbershop quartet.

Listen and enjoy the beautiful music of these unique groups, and if the Christmas spirit moves you—sing along!

45TH ANNIVERSARY

OH CHRISTMAS TREE:

The Evolution of an Icon

All Festival Hours

Katy Depot in
Frontier Park

Perhaps no image is as associated with the holiday season as the Christmas tree. For centuries these festive evergreens have not only provided a fitting place for Santa to deposit gifts, but have stood as a global symbol for the hope and meaning of Christmas.

Journey to the Historic KATY Depot in Frontier Park to experience "Oh, Christmas Tree: The Evolution of an Icon," an exhibit that will lead visitors on a gentle winding path through history as a forest of tannenbaums illustrate how trends and fashions affected the stylings of trees over generations. From the first illumination introduced to pine trees by Martin Luther, to the mid-century modern flair of aluminum trees in the 1950s and 1960s, discover interesting trivia as you view international variations of this holiday icon, while celebrating famous depictions in popular culture (from Charlie Brown's sad sapling to Seinfeld's "Festivus Pole").

Though the style has changed over the years, one thing is certain: this exhibit will leave you pining to learn more about the holiday season's biggest decorative star.

KRAMPUS KARNIVAL:
The Bizarre, Odd, and Curious
TRADITIONS OF CHRISTMAS

Wednesdays and Fridays
6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Katy Depot in
Frontier Park

You'd better watch out! Krampus is coming to town! On Wednesday and Friday nights, be prepared to experience some of the wonderfully weird holiday customs from around the globe as Krampus (the furry, punitive partner of Saint Nicholas in Bavarian and Austrian culture) has arrived in Saint Charles with his notorious batch of kooky (but friendly) friends. From Gryla (the quirky Icelandic ogress) to Mari Lwyd (the whimsical singing skeletal horse from Welsh culture), and those whacky mischievous Greek trolls, the Kallikantzaroi, they have all assembled and have transformed the deck of the historic KATY Depot in Frontier Park into a turn-of-the-century carnival mid-way. Step right up as these madcap carnival barkers share their stories in the form of classic boardwalk games. But look closely and you'll see that these games have been "Krampus-fied!" (You'll never look at a game of cornhole the same way again once you've tossed a human-shaped beanbag into the mouth of a wooden ogre). Continue inside the KATY Depot where you will see that Krampus himself has decided to re-decorate Santa's home-away-from-home. With eerie lighting and the sound of macabre Christmas carols floating through the air, enter Santa's parlor that has been re-imagined as Krampus' lair. Spin the wheel of misfortune, and have a laugh at Krampus' comical antics. Create lasting memories as you discover the peculiar holiday traditions from around the world during this curious experience that is certainly more "merry" than "scary."
