CONTACT SAVINGS COLLABORATIVE

Savings Collaborative’s unique community ambassador program provides personalized guidance to individuals in specific communities. The community ambassador for Steamboat Springs is Ingrid Zuniga. Chamber members or employees can contact her with questions or to get started.

“As ambassadors, we get to be part of people’s lives. It’s not just about how much money they have in the bank. We are able to build safe, trusting relationships where Savers can talk about their struggles and work to change behaviors in way that allow them to fulfill goals and chase dreams.”

-Ingrid Zuniga, Savings Collaborative Senior Ambassador. Arriving in Colorado as an 18-year-old and speaking very little English, Ingrid was determined to get an education. With her own intelligence and drive and a little nudge from the Savings Collaborative, she is saving money and making rapid progress in transforming her goals into reality.
