

FAMILY-FRIENDLY ITINERARY

DAY ONE - SETTLE IN

CAMP MARGARITAVILLE

Check into a cabin and let the kids splash in the pools and water playground, then have dinner on site at the 5 o'clock Somewhere Bar and Grill.

POCHE'S RV PARK & FISH-N-CAMP

Check into a cabin and let the kids fish in the stocked ponds or bounce around the inflatable Aqua Park (seasonal). Then head into Breaux Bridge for supper at Buck and Johnny's (great for Cajun classics and family dining) or Myran's Maison de Manger on the Bayou Teche.

DAY TWO - BIG ADVENTURES

BREAKFAST

Start the day with donuts—Thee Heavenly Donut if you're at Margaritaville or Cajun Market Donut Co. if you're staying at Poché's.

MORNING FUN

Head to Cajun Fast Track for go-karts, arcade games, and mini golf, then pop next door to the Prehistoric Park to walk among life-size dinosaurs.

LUNCH

Stop at Turtle's Bar & Grill on the Atchafalaya for casual food with a view of the swamp.

AFTERNOON ADVENTURE

Take a swamp tour at McGee's on the Atchafalaya Basin, where kids can spot alligators, turtles and birds. In crawfish season (March–May), swap it out for a hands-on crawfish farm tour.

DINNER

End the day at Crawfish Town USA, where the kids can enjoy Cajun favorites.

- BONUS FAMILY-FRIENDLY EVENTS (IF VISITING SEASONALLY)
- October: Atelier's Halloween Art & Nature Festival – crafts, costumes, and nature fun.
 - November - December: Papa Noel Swamp Tours @ McGee's.
 - Spring: Atelier's Fête de la Nature Bioblitz & Crawfish Boil – hands-on outdoor exploration + Cajun food.
 - Mardi Gras Season: Courir des Enfants (Kids Chicken Run) – a kid-friendly twist on the Cajun tradition.
 - Monthly: Kids' Jam at Buck & Johnny's (1st Tuesday) – kids bring instruments and join in a Cajun jam session!

DAY THREE - BEIGNETS & BAYOUS

BREAKFAST/BRUNCH

Head to Tante Marie in downtown Breaux Bridge for fresh beignets and stay for live music at 11:00 a.m.

LATE MORNING

Explore Lake Martin—rent kayaks or canoes for a short paddle under the cypress trees, or take a nature walk to spot herons and egrets.

AFTERNOON

Wrap up at Bayou Teche Brewing. Parents can enjoy local craft beer while kids enjoy pizza, outdoor games, and live music on weekends.

