Central PA's Susquehanna River Valley: Every Turn a Treasure

Promoting Snyder, Union and Northumberland Counties in Central Pennsylvania, including the historic towns of Lewisburg, Mifflinburg, Milton, Mt. Carmel, Northumberland, Selinsgrove, Shamokin and Sunbury

History & Heritage

When you come to the Susquehanna River Valley, it may feel like you've stepped back in time. Listen to the clip-clop of horse and buggies as they scurry from the country side to the downtown to sell their produce and wares. Observe history that's alive and thriving at the Mifflinburg Buggy Museum (pictured), Joseph Priestley House Museum, Slifer House Museum, Packwood House Museum. Touch handmade quilts that took months to craft by hand. Taste our local specialties, like whoopie pies, pot pie, and apple butter.

Arts & Culture

Arts and culture thrive in the Susquehanna River Valley! Discover Victorian architecture, three murals in downtown Milton, galleries, an Artisans Trail, a restored Art Deco movie palace, live musical and theater performances, six wineries and so much more.

Towns & Countrysides

If you enjoy a carefree pace in a rural setting, then you'll love the beautiful Susquehanna River Valley. Our charming downtowns and vast countrysides are here to welcome you year-round. Here in the River Valley, you'll notice that we enjoy sharing the road with buggies and bicycles; that fairs and festivals highlight our rich history and heritage; and that the arts thrive in our galleries, museums, parks, and small cafes.

Outdoor Recreation

Whether it's spring, summer, fall, or winter, the natural beauty of the Susquehanna River Valley is sure to inspire you to take in the great outdoors. The Susquehanna River Valley is home to the majestic Susquehanna River. We are also surrounded by state parks, scenic country roads, abundant fishing streams and year-round recreational opportunities.
