

Locks, Lakes & Legends

Available June–September
Two–Night Tour

DAY ONE

Morning

The Erie Canal Museum showcases the incredible story of the Erie Canal and the Nationally Registered Weighlock Building built in 1850, the last remaining structure of its kind. Experience a part of history that played an imperative role in the growth and development of commerce in the United States.

Downtown Syracuse

Enjoy a guided Syracuse city tour by bus, or a guided half-mile walking tour of downtown.

Lunch

Lunch on your own at Salt City Market, rated one of the “Ten Best New Food Halls Across the Country” by Fodor’s Travel. Choose from ten unique food vendors serving cuisine from around the globe.

Erie Canal

Locks

After learning the history of the Erie Canal, enjoy a narrated cruise and experience traveling through a lock at Camillus Erie Canal Park. Before leaving, browse their expansive gift shop.

Dinner

Choose dinner at Stone’s Lakeside while enjoying wonderful views of Oneida Lake, or the original, nationally-acclaimed, finger-licking good Dinosaur Bar-B-Que.

DAY TWO

Morning

Choose from one of the following:

Seward House, home of William H. Seward, Secretary of State to Presidents Lincoln and Johnson. Seward is most well-known for purchasing Alaska from Russia, known as Seward's Folly and designated a National Historic Landmark.

Willard Chapel, completed in 1894, has an interior designed and hand-crafted entirely by Tiffany Glass & Decorating Company and is the only complete, unaltered Tiffany-designed religion interior known to exist in the world.

Harriet Tubman National Historical Park. After the Civil War, Harriet Tubman, known as the "Moses of her people," settled in Auburn. Explore the home of this famous conductor of the Underground Railroad.

Lunch

Lunch on your own in the picturesque village of Skaneateles, situated on the north shore of Skaneateles Lake. O Magazine named this Finger Lakes village number one on Oprah's list of "60 Charming American Towns You Haven't Heard of But Should Visit ASAP."

Lakes

Enjoy a scenic boat cruise on Skaneateles Lake with Mid-Lakes Navigation aboard the Judge Ben Wiles. Skaneateles Lake is known as one of the cleanest bodies of water in the world. The Judge Ben Wiles was built by the Wiles family, descendants of Gustav Stickley, Stickley Furniture founder.

Next, it's time to sample wines at Anyela's Vineyards, while taking in more fabulous views of Skaneateles Lake — an excellent photo opportunity with family and friends.

Dinner

Return to Syracuse to rest and refresh before enjoying dinner at Phoebe's Restaurant.

Entertainment

Syracuse has two fabulous theatres: Syracuse Stage, renowned for creating theatrical works with Syracuse University's Department of Drama. Broadway in Syracuse delivers a season of spectacular nationally touring Broadway shows to the Landmark Theatre, a Registered National Landmark.

Spend your evening outdoors along the shore of Onondaga Lake at St. Joseph's Health Amphitheater to see today's biggest stars under the stars.
