Welcome to Temple

Conveniently located off I-35, Temple is the ideal destination for your next meeting or event. Temple is located in the heart of Central Texas. Located less than an hour from major cities like Waco and Austin and a little over two hours from Dallas and San Antonio, Temple is a hub for travel and attractions. Traveling to and from Temple is easy with this resourceful location.

Temple has the heart of a small town with many of the conveniences of a larger city offering visitors a chance to taste a whole new world of flavors. Find a wide selection of cuisines such as American classics, Latin-American, authentic Mexican dishes, Asian cuisines, and so much more in this opportunistic city! From authentic Thai food to fusion cuisines like Mexican Korean combinations, there's so many unique flavor options to try! There are also several shopping centers, including several one-of-a-kind shops located in Temple's Downtown District. Have some free time in between your event plans? Check out the unique treasures and items you can find in Temple's local shops and boutiques. The downtown district of Temple has a selection of antique parlors, consignment shops, and a vendor shopping center. The downtown area is full of possibility and excitement. The downtown district is home to many historic buildings, beautiful art murals, and more. With new businesses popping up in Temple, you're bound to find something new whether this is your first time visiting or your tenth.

With historic charm and appeal, Temple will leave you feeling at home. The beautiful landscapes of our vibrant parks and trails, and the relaxing waters at Temple Lake Park will provide a picture-worthy view for your recreational downtime. Looking for recreational activities for you and your team? Check out the many great parks, sports complexes, disc golf courses, and lake rentals that Temple has available to you. With so many great outdoor activities, you can fill your days with exciting, fun-filled activities in your time between events and meetings.

Apart from the attractions, dining, and shopping experiences Temple has to offer, the city's most valuable asset is its people. With southern hospitality, good graces, and friendly faces, Temple's residents are always ready, willing, and able to help!

We look forward to making your next event the best one yet!

LAKE BELTON

DOWNTOWN TEMPLE

DOWNTOWN TEMPLE

A Taste for Adventure in Temple's Great Outdoors

So often we find ourselves in a traveling mood to see the sights and get outdoors. Between the trails, the lake, and the parks, Temple has the outdoor experience you have been searching for.

RELAXING DAYS AT THE LAKE

A good beach day consists of relaxing warmth from the sun and gentle waves. Lake Belton provides the perfect setup for calming waves lapping along the bank, picturesque sunsets, and a comforting outdoor temperature. Though not your typical beach setting, you can find comfort and relaxation at the B.L.O.R.A. (Belton Lake Outdoor Recreational Area) and at various parks surrounding the lake. The expansive area of the B.L.O.R.A. has access to riding trails, paintball, a climbing wall, and a swimming pool. This recreational area also has its own beach, known as the Sierra Beach, where you can swim, enjoy the water, and have a beach day the central Texas way. Along with this lake setting, Cedar Ridge Park and Westcliff Park are also located along the water and have the perfect space to picnic, grill, and spend time with friends.

INTO THE WOODS

Another great way to spend time outdoors is to go on a nature walk and check out a few local trails. Pepper Creek is a beautiful mixture of wooded and open trail scenery. This trail is also on the same grounds of the disc golf course at Crossroads Park. With charming bridges and stunning waterfalls, this trail is truly something special. Miller Springs Nature Center also has trails to hike, bike, or walk the dogs. The landscape provides a picture-worthy backdrop for all your activity needs. With walking trails, and mixed environmental scenery, Miller Springs is a nature destination you are sure to love. Another fantastic park with trails is Chalk Ridge Falls. With breathtaking waterfalls and a suspension bridge, this gorgeous park is full of photo opportunities. Grab your friends, wear your best fitness gear, and get ready to set your sights on a park with stunning views found only in Bell County.

CAMPING IN STYLE

Moreover, if you are in the mood for a true outdoors experience, try your hand at camping. A few examples of places to camp include: Live Oak Ridge, Cedar Ridge, Stillhouse Hollow Lake, and Temple Lake Park. At these areas you can find picnic spots, campgrounds, water access points, trails, and pavilions. Roast s'mores by the fire pits at the campgrounds, swim in the lake access points, or hike the terrain to further explore the area. With so many camping areas throughout Temple, there's plenty of different sites and surroundings to see.

At camping sites on Stillhouse Hollow Lake, there are water and electricity hookups on both sites, and pets are allowed. This setup is perfect for an outdoor adventure with the family. Or, for pet-lovers interested in a weekend camping trip with their beloved four-legged friends, grab a hammock and camping gear with all your pet supplies and enjoy a weekend away with your pet. Another fantastic camping option is the Turkey Roost Campground located in Cedar Ridge Park. Enjoy an overnight stay on the lake with walking trails, outdoor sports activities, and a magnificent view.

THE GREAT TEMPLE OUTDOORS

Temple has a lot of wonderful areas to explore. The city is rich in nature, parks, and trails. With a selection this large, you are sure to find an activity you love in the great outdoors. Outdoor activities are perfect for families, couples, and those who love to travel with their pets. What are you waiting for? For more information regarding booking the perfect campsite for your next outdoor adventure, visit recreation.gov.

Downtown District

Temple's downtown district is always growing with new businesses opening frequently. The district is full of unique, historic buildings, shops, and incredible dining options. Explore what Temple's downtown scene has to offer in your free time between events.

THE EXPERIENCE

Visitors and travelers passing through Temple can learn a lot from the downtown district. Temple's residents are creative, driven, and always looking for ways to showcase the historic and artful nature of the city through delicious food, upbeat local music, and its boutiques. Temple's downtown showcases the heart and creativity of its people through vibrant art murals, decorated art trains, and a unique local culture. Discover an experience you will always remember.

THE TASTES

Discover downtown Temple through its assortment of cuisines and delicious meals. For fans of Italian favorites, stop by Pignetti's for delicious recipes and flavorful appetizers. Pignetti's has an on-site wine cellar filled with all your favorites and more. Feeling fancy? Have a grand fine dining experience at Cheeves Bros. Steakhouse, a local favorite. In the mood for fried rice and savory flavors? Stop by Nami Japanese Steak, Thai Café, or La Dalat-Vietnamese Cuisine. These Asian cuisine restaurants are sure to leave your cravings satisfied. Or try a fusion of Mexican-Korean specialties at MexiKo Café. Looking for a good burger or pizza? Bird Creek Burger Co. and Treno's Pizzeria are local favorites you won't want to miss. With specialty flavors and gourmet finds, your taste buds will thank you for checking out these restaurants. Other restaurants in the downtown district include PJ's Table Top Southern Cuisine, First Street Roasters, Ras Kitchen and Tres Magueyes.

THE YARD

Find delicious entrees at each of The Yard's visiting food trucks. Each food truck offers its own unique flavors and cuisine types. Visitors can grab a bite to eat and enjoy the gorgeous weather as they sit around the outdoor patio area. Discover a new food truck each time you visit our city.

THE NIGHTLIFE

Downtown Temple is the perfect spot for cold drafts and exquisite wines. Fire Base Brewing Company, BJ's Brewery & Tasting Room, Green Door on Second, Corkys, Mo's Rail Yard Saloon, O'Brien's Irish Pub, Treno's Pizzeria and Fox Dog all have craft beers and drafts for your enjoyment. For wine lovers, head to Corkys or J Kowboy Wine Bar for flavorful wines of all varieties.

THE SHOPS

With the downtown district ever-changing and growing, new shops are always being added. With antique parlors, thrift shopping, books, and more, you can find something unique in the local shops. Darling Décor & More, 2nd Street Emporium, The Hub, The Parlour, Relics Antiques, The Book Cellar, A Darling Thrift Store and Twice Upon a Clothesline are just a few of the downtown district's wonderful shops and features.

Local Attractions

Fill your days with endless fun and entertainment on your next trip to Temple. Spend your free time experiencing our local attractions and things to do. Whether traveling in a small or large group, there's plenty to do and see in our exciting destination.

ENTERTAINMENT AND FUN

Temple has exciting entertainment for adults and children alike. The entire family will have a great time at Spare Time Fun Center and Striker's Backyard for bowling, laser tag, go-karts, and ropes course. With Spare Time's recent renovations, this entertainment center now has sand volleyball, batting cages, and an outdoor bar and grill.

For families that love to spend time at the water park, check out Lions Junction Water Park which provides fun for all ages with three-story water slides, lazy river, pool, and lounge areas with snack shack.

For an extreme, active entertainment experience, visitors can stop by the Temple Mall and head to Xtreme Jump Adventure Park where they can ride go-karts, play dodgeball, and jump on trampolines. Visitors can also try their hand at the ninja warrior course, or participate in volcano climbing, utilize the tubes playground, and much more.

MUSEUMS, MUSIC, AND THE ARTS

Temple's Railroad & Heritage Museum is housed in the historic Santa Fe Depot. The permanent exhibits explore working and traveling on the railroad with an emphasis on the Santa Fe Railway. The museum also hosts a variety of changing temporary exhibits. A collection of railroad equipment is displayed on the grounds next to an active railroad yard where visitors can observe daily operations and traffic of the BNSF and Amtrak.

The Czech Heritage Museum and Genealogy Center is the oldest Czech cultural heritage museum in Texas. The museum houses artifacts and produces programs which tell the stories of the history and rich culture of the Czech lands, of Czech immigrants in Texas, and of Czech-Americans connecting with their families during the Cold War and in today's Czech Republic.

Visit the Bell County Museum, in neighboring Belton, and explore the fascinating history of the Bell County area. Visitors can interact with history, science, and culture or learn something new in one of the rotating traveling exhibitions.

If music and the arts are your passion, be sure to watch a performance by the Temple Symphony Orchestra, enjoy theater, music, and art galleries at the Cultural Activities Center or Temple Civic Theater.

DRAFTS, WINERIES, AND BREWERIES

Dedicated to providing a streamlined and fun experience, Tour Temple is a great service for active adults who enjoy being a part of the ever-increasing social scene in Central Texas. Take one of their regularly scheduled tours or customize your own for wine, brews, and more.

Prefer a self-guided tour and sightseeing on your own time? With each of our wineries found locally, or just a short drive away, guests to the area can visit a winery whenever they like. Unique to our region, local wineries are rich in delightful aromas and decadent flavors. Enjoy a taste of Texas-style wine on your next trip.

For the wine connoisseurs, be sure to head over to:

- 3 Texans Winery & Tasting Room
- Dancing Bee Winery & Honey Farm

SPORTS AND GAMES

Sammons Golf Course is an award-winning, municipal golf course open year-round that features 18 holes, driving range, pitching/chipping area, and putting green. Sammons Grill and the Pro Shop are also on site to take care of any dining or golf supplies you desire.

A natural gem in the Temple golf community, Wildflower Golf Course is nestled among rolling, green hills and graced with natural ponds. The 18-hole course, designed by Leon Howard, offers a challenging and rewarding experience for the avid golfer, whether novice or professional. Tanglefoot Grill and the Wildflower Pro Shop are open and ready before and after you play through the course.

Weber's Skeet Shooting Range, located 9 miles north of downtown, provides the gun enthusiast plenty of options for clay shooting. Visitors can choose between Course, Skeet, and 5-Stand.

For fans of billiards and pool, visitors can stop by one of Temple's pool halls. Temple's pool halls include: Future Cues, Dooley's Pool Hall & Pro Shop, and Charlie's Cuez. Enjoy a night out playing a few games of billiards.

For fans of outdoor activities, stop by one of Temple's incredible disc golf courses. Temple is home to three disc golf courses. Crossroads Park, Lions Park, and South Temple Community Park all feature a disc golf course with varying course lengths, terrains, and obstacles. Experience outdoor fun and friendly competition at these local courses.

Looking for something sporty to do? Stop by Crossroads Park, home to soccer fields, baseball and softball fields, tennis courts, and more. This park is an excellent stop for your next tournament or recreational fun.

Tournaments & Things to Do

Temple is rich with local attractions both parents and their children can enjoy.

If you are a guest traveling to Temple for a sports tournament, championship or league, there's going to be plenty of additional free time between practices and games. When traveling with a young sports team, fun and excitement are always on the minds of the children looking to experience entertainment on a trip away from home.

Spare Time Texas is an incredible adventure park with activities like bowling, laser tag and arcade games. The attraction also has a full menu of snacks, appetizers, and entrees. In addition to indoor entertainment, Spare Time now has outdoor features including a sand volleyball pit, batting cages, go karts track, and a ropes course. Xtreme Jump Adventure Park gives children the opportunity to unleash all the extra energy after a big game. Xtreme Jump has several trampoline surfaces where the kids can practice flips and have fun. Additionally, this attraction has a ninja warrior course, dodgeball, climbing walls, and so much more. Your youth sports team will be talking about this Temple attraction for years to come.

If your tournament is held during the summer months, the weather will be perfect for visiting Lions Junction Family Water Park or Summer Fun Water Park. Both parks have access to a lazy river, large swimming pool, concession stand, and endless fun. Temple is home to over 65 parks and outdoor recreational areas for those looking to spend more time outside.

Need to grab a bite to eat before or after the championship game? Head to one of the area's many casual or fine dining restaurants for local flavors you won't find anywhere else.

Our city has an abundance of local attractions and activities. Make the most of your trip by spending your free time checking out our area's fun things to do along with local eateries, bakeries or ice cream shops. With lots of free time between tournament games, visitors can explore our incredible destination and find more reasons to love what our city has to offer.

Regional Overview

BELTON

Belton is located approximately fifteen minutes away, among rolling plains, wooded hills, rivers, and lakes. Belton has a rich history and radiates the romance of the Old West. Over 160 historical markers are evidence of the city's historic past.

SALADO

Salado is a delightful village full of great shops, restaurants, and attractions. With historic charm and a creek that runs through the center of town, the Salado Main Street and vicinity is a lively marketplace with shops, cafes, and artists galleries only a short drive south on IH-35.

WACO

Waco is just a 40-minute drive north of Temple. Visit Magnolia Market and its famous landmark silos that occupy two city blocks in downtown Waco. Owned by HGTV “Fixer Upper” stars Chip and Joanna Gaines, there’s a little something for everyone at Magnolia Market at the Silos. Food trucks, Silos Baking Co., complete with cupcakes and other sweets, Magnolia Press Coffee, and Magnolia Seed & Supply round out the complex.

The entire family will also enjoy touring the Mammoth National Monument, Cameron Park Zoo, Dr. Pepper Museum, and the Mayborn Museum Complex on the Baylor University Campus.

KILLEEN

In Killeen visitors can spend some time at the Mayborn Science Theater, offering an imaginary journey through time and space, planetarium star shows, and laser light shows. Other attractions in Killeen include the Great Escape of Central Texas and Stillhouse Wine Room.

FORT HOOD

Sitting 25 miles west of Temple is one of the largest military installations in the country. Fort Hood covers a total of 340-square miles supporting multiple units, a corps headquarters, and robust mobilization mission. It is the only post in the United States capable of stationing and training two armored divisions. Visitors will enjoy touring the 3rd Cavalry and 1st Cavalry Museums.
