2025 OFFICIAL
VISITORS' GUIDE

Welcome to Terredise!

Welcome to Terre Haute, the Heart of Indiana!

As mayor, it's my honor to invite you to explore everything our fine city has to offer. Whether you're here for a weekend getaway, a family vacation, or a business trip, you'll find Terre Haute is a community that blends rich history, natural beauty, and a thriving arts scene with Hoosier hospitality.

In Terre Haute, you'll discover historic downtown filled with unique shops, delicious locally-owned restaurants, and public art that reflects our community's vibrant culture. Nature lovers will be thrilled with our parks — we have more parks per capita than any other Indiana city — perfect for hiking, kayaking, and wildlife watching. You can also explore the Wabash River, take in a concert at The Mill, or visit one of our four institutions of higher education.

Our sports venues, like LaVern Gibson Championship Cross Country Course and Griffin Bike Park, are home to national level events that draw visitors from all over. And if you're in the mood for some local flavor, don't miss our wineries, breweries, and eateries, where you can taste the best of Terre Haute and beyond.

I'm proud to call this community home, and I know you'll love it here as much as we do. Thank you for visiting Terre Haute — enjoy your stay in Terredise, where legends are made, and memories are waiting to be created.

Sincerely,

Brandon Sakbun
Mayor of Terre Haute

Nestled in West Central Indiana, just east of the Illinois border along the Wabash River, Terre Haute is a unique blend of history, culture, and modern growth. Known as the heart of the Wabash Valley, Terre Haute offers a vibrant and historic downtown, nationally recognized facilities, and four higher education institutions. With new developments and a growing tourism scene, the city is the perfect location for events and an ideal gateway to the Midwest. Come see for yourself!
