KANSAS MUSEUM OF HISTORY

STEP BACK IN TIME

Tucked away in the Ramada Hotel, posters and movies decorate the walls and dioramas are on display in glass cases at the Holley Museum of Military History. What began as a personal collection was donated to create a museum after Mr. Jerry Holley's passing. With the addition of several other donations, the museum occupies five rooms of the hotel. The rooms are named after Winston Churchill, Ronald Reagan, Dwight Eisenhower, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman. It takes 20-30 minutes to go through the museum and is a great stop for history buffs.
