

PASO ROBLES

Group Tour and Meeting Information

Why Paso Robles?

- Conveniently located midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles
- California's fastest growing wine region
- Budding new craft beer, hard cider and distilled spirits scene
- Home to award-winning chefs and their farm-to-table cuisine
- Agritourism scene with olive oil and nut ranches, organic farm tours and vineyard excursions
- Historic downtown square with wine and olive oil tasting, shopping, destination restaurants and dining
- Annual food, wine, cultural, equine and family events
- Near Hearst Castle, beaches and three historic missions
- Natural, relaxing hot springs and spas
- Family and outdoor activities: seasonal water park, mountain lakes, boating, fishing, waterskiing, horseback riding, hiking and biking
- Golf: 4.5-star Hunter Ranch Golf Course; 10 courses within a 30-minute drive of the city including the Paso Robles Golf Club and Links Golf Course

Small Group Itinerary Ideas

- Wineries Behind the Scenes: Group or individual winemaking experiences and seminars, winemaker lunches or dinners.
- Wild Wild West: Harris Stage Lines offers a taste of the Old West—learn how to drive a stagecoach, or enjoy lunch or dinner and a rodeo show at the ranch. Take a tour through the vineyards by horseback.
- Agritourism Experiences: Harvest and make your own wine or olive oil, take a historic food and wine tour with Central Coast Food Tours, pick your own lavender and experience educational hands-on workshops with FARMstead ED.
- Group Cooking Classes: Learn from well-known local cookbook author Brigit Binns.
- Well-Crafted: Sip beyond the wine with Paso's burgeoning craft beers, ciders and spirits; tours and tastings are offered at Firestone Walker Brewing Company, Bristols Cider House, Re:Find Distillery and many more.
