

1. Productions receiving the “Point of Purchase Sales Tax Exemption” from the State of Oklahoma ARE NOT eligible for the receipt of Tulsa Film Incentives.
2. Before applying, productions must speak with Meg Gould, Executive Director/Film Commissioner of the Tulsa Office of Film, Music, Arts & Culture (“Tulsa FMAC”): meggould@visittulsa.com, 972.679.8473.
3. Applications should be completed and submitted, to include all required information, no later than sixty (60) days before pre-production begins. Principal photography for feature film projects must begin within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the effective date of an incentive contract and within ninety (90) days for scripted television pilots, scripted television series, and reality programs. Any changes to the start date must be notified and re-certified by Meg Gould, Tulsa FMAC.
4. Applications may not be accepted more than one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the start of principal photography.
5. An applicant can qualify only once per calendar year, per project. Exceptions may be made for episodic series. An applicant is defined as the company entitled to receive the rebate with any common ownership, corporate officers or other verifiable affiliation. Work-for-hire companies are not eligible for the rebate.
6. Only one (1) application will be allowed per project. If your project has been rejected, you may not resubmit.
7. The person who is responsible for the ledger must sign the application.
8. Production agrees to begin Principal Photography on the date specified in the Eligibility Application. A production may delay the start of Principal Photography two times, up to ninety (90) days from the original start date. If the start is delayed a third time, or a Production does not start by the date specified in their latest written update submitted to TULSA FMAC, Pre-Qualification is revoked, the Eligibility Application is denied, and the Production cannot apply again until the following calendar year.
9. Applications will be opened quarterly
