

Union County: The Perfect Girl's Getaway Sample Itinerary

As autumn sweeps in with its cool, crisp air and its' changing foliage, it's the perfect time for a girls' getaway. Enjoy the escape from the everyday hustle and instead spend a weekend with your best friends as you catch up on each other's lives. Spend afternoons exploring quaint shops and cozy boutiques, or delight in seasonal treats. As the sun sets, gather around a crackling fire, sharing stories and laughter. This fall, let the season's magic enhance your friendships and create unforgettable memories.

Spend your Friday evening taking in the changing scenery of Richwood Lake. Enjoy a lovely picnic dinner by the lake or, if you prefer not to pack, stop by Chefs' Parlour for a meal and treat yourself to one of their caramel apples and an apple cider float or boozy shakes. Afterward, continue your evening fireside at one of our seven cozy lodging options.

Start your Saturday morning right with a delicious pastry and coffee at Jacquemin Farms. Try a seasonal pumpkin muffin or donut and make sure to check out their market for local produce and goods you won't want to head home without. Next, head to Hammer and Stain in Plain City to get crafty with your friends. Choose from a variety of craft projects, such as their vintage Christmas tree class or 3-D ornaments and create beautiful home decorations while making lasting memories. For lunch, visit Der Dutchman Restaurant for a hearty Amish feast that showcases the rich flavors of traditional Amish cooking. After your meal, explore Carlisle Gifts next door for a charming shopping experience filled with unique finds and handcrafted treasures. Head into Plain City's downtown and explore more local shops including Front Porch Home and Main Street Treasures.

In the afternoon, discover the perfect gift and enjoy a delightful shopping spree in Uptown Marysville. Browse through a variety of distinctive shops, boutiques, and gift stores; including, Betsey's Boutique, Plumm Home, Gathered Goods, and more. and take in the charming atmosphere. End your Saturday evening at Taphouse at Retreat 21, where you can savor a local wine while watching the sunset over their lavender field. Pair it with a delicious charcuterie board for a relaxing end to your day.

Before you head out on Sunday morning, indulge in one of our local brunch spots including Red Hen Café, Mckinley's Grille, or Half Pint. Where you can try mimosas, specialty coffees, cinnamon rolls, and omelets—there's something to satisfy every taste.

Enjoy your weekend getaway!

• VISIT •
UNION COUNTY