POLYGON GALLERY

Wael Shawky: Al Araba Al Madfuna
OCTOBER 17 2019 - JANUARY 12, 2020

Egyptian artist Wael Shawky translates stories and histories of Egyptian culture into the present. This theatrical installation of Shawky's film Al Araba Al Madfuna incorporates drawings and sculptures. Shot in Upper Egypt, the film is based on a tale about sunflowers. The artist was inspired by witnessing people digging underground tunnels in search of buried treasures to find their ancestors' secrets and spiritual powers. Wael Shawky is renown for his elaborate film works that have been exhibited across the globe and now, with this exhibition, The Polygon Gallery offers the first opportunity to experience his extraordinary artwork in Western Canada. ### GULF OF GEORGIA CANNERY

"The Label Unwrapped: The History of Canned Salmon Labels" exhibit opened in May 2019, and will be on display until Spring 2021. Since 1870, over 200 salmon canneries have been in operation on Canada's west coast. Through the years, companies have competed to find creative ways to sell their canned salmon. This exhibit explores some of the colourful and thought-provoking labels from salmon canneries throughout British Columbia. gulfofgeorgiacannery.org
