“The entire team in Vancouver, from the sales team to the convention services team to the onsite teams at the center, they’re all incredible. I’ve never experienced a city that is so genuinely thoughtful and kind. The generosity from this team is unmatched and was wildly appreciated. It made our grueling 5 day meeting enjoyable for my staff. I’m forever indebted. Thank you! - Nate Wambold, American Anthropological Association”

Why Vancouver

We may have been voted Most Liveable City quite a few times, but we prefer the term Most Alive — and your delegates will see why. Here, we don't just sit in nature; we run, jump, ski, surf, start start-ups and brew breweries in it (among many other things). With endless adventures available to your team, this city will keep them inspired in and out of the boardroom.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

Part of the beauty of this place comes from the diversity of our people. We're proud to be a safe, inclusive city, and you'll hear us say it in one of the 70+ languages spoken here (though English and French are our official languages).

OUR NATURAL PLAYGROUND

We're surrounded by some of the world's most beautiful (and accessible) nature, offering year-round mountain, rainforest, and ocean excursions. This is a take-your-breath-away, choose-your-own-adventure kind of place.

GETTING HERE IS SIMPLE. BEING HERE, EVEN EASIER

Here, you'll find non-stop direct flights to over 122 destinations, with 86 US and 43 international arrivals per day. And to get around, choose from skytrains, buses, taxis, Ubers, Lyfts, limousines, or your legs (we're very walkable).

GREEN VIEWS, THUMBS AND INITIATIVES

As the 1970s birthplace of Greenpeace, you'll find sustainable practices at every turn — from the six-acre living roof on the Vancouver Convention Centre, to our recycling programs, seasonal menus, hotel certifications and eco-transportation.

EXPERIENCES BEYOND THE 9-TO-5

Our location makes us the perfect jumping- (driving-, sailing-, flying-) off point for adventure. In the days or even hours before and after a meeting, your delegates can easily add an experience that won't be so easily forgotten.

PARADISE FOR PEDESTRIANS

Where other cities might have your team travelling for hours in traffic, our walkability can't be beat. Our downtown core provides everything your team needs in 30-minutes walking time or less, helping you achieve both your sustainability and your budgetary goals.

YVR Airport

We're one of the best-connected places on the planet. Sitting equal distance between Asia and Europe, and only minutes from the U.S. border, Vancouver International Airport (YVR) welcomes over 900 international flights from around the globe, every week. And we're not just connected to other places, but also to each other. Our hospitality team works as one to create a customized experience for your team, right down to your travel plans.

Unique Venues

When's the last time you went to a meeting on top of a mountain?
Or sat with colleagues at a table surrounded by swimming sea life?
Or attended a corporate event in an old growth forest? You may have started to notice we like to do things a little differently around here. So it should come as no surprise that you can, too. In Vancouver, invite your delegates to a venue they'll never expect — or forget.

Group Dining

From the best Chinese and Japanese dining outside of Asia, to our dedication to locally sourced and cultivated ingredients, your attendees will be spoiled for choice when it comes to experiencing the flavours of the Pacific Northwest. Whether you’re looking for a place to host a group dinner, a food truck to feed your team, or restaurants that your delegates can explore on their own, Vancouver’s food scene has endless options (and flavours).

What the world is saying

“From grazing among food stalls in Granville Island’s Market to sampling dim sum in Chinatown, Vancouver is a foodie’s fantasyland.”

USA Today

“I’m always chasing the dragon of jelly doughnuts because no jelly doughnuts are as good as this jelly doughnut.”

Seth Rogan on Lee’s Donuts
(1689 Johnston St. Granville island)

“The number of truly outstanding restaurants in Vancouver is astonishing, and the prices are ridiculously low when compared to other food capitals...”

The New York Times

“Fusion is the operative word in restaurant-rich Vancouver, where Northwest meets Japanese meets Indian meets Chinese.”

National Geographic Traveler

A (NON-EXHAUSTIVE) LIST OF GROUP RESTAURANTS

We’re well-known for being a multicultural city, and you can expect the same celebration of diversity from our menus. From the best Chinese and Japanese cuisine outside of Asia (trust us – it’s that good) to local, seasonal, farm-to-table ingredients like fresh seafood and foraged greens, your delegates will have the culinary world at their fingertips (and taste buds). Partner with a local restaurateur to have your event catered, or simply take a walk through any of our great restaurant neighbourhoods. Either way, you can anticipate a meal that’s bound to become a memory.

Green Sustainability

Vancouver has a reputation for leading the way in green building, planning and technology, with the smallest per capita carbon footprint in North America. And while that makes us proud, we’ve still got big plans — like aiming to reduce emissions by 80% and be 100% powered by renewable energy by 2050.

“In a year of a lot of unknowns, we always knew we were going to find a way to hold our Annual Meeting in Vancouver. And although the COVID-19 Pandemic had other plans for 2020, our partners with Destination Vancouver, the VCC, and the hotel community joined together to provide a seamless process for rebooking our event in 2024. The Vancouver team is a strong, unified community, and AMP appreciates this partnership, especially during these challenging times. For so many reasons, Vancouver is also a great destination, and we are excited to be able to welcome our 3,500 members and other Molecular Diagnostic professionals as we celebrate our association's 30th anniversary!”

Health & Wellness

OUTSIDE INSPIRATION

Our connection to nature is undeniable, and we embrace it. Whether it's walking, running or cycling the Seawall – an almost 9km (5.5 mile) pathway hugging the coastline – or forest bathing (it's a real thing) in Stanley Park – our 400-hectare (1,000 acre) natural rainforest in the city. Here, being outside feels great on the inside.

REFLECTIVE SPACES

Sometimes, it takes a little stimulation to press 'stop'. And we have just the places for it. From the tranquil Nitobe Memorial Garden at the University of British Columbia (which is among the top five authentic Japanese gardens outside of Japan), to the 1931-built Vancouver Art Gallery, we've got places specifically designed to put your mind in rest-and-reflect mode.

CONSCIOUS CUISINE

Being mindful isn't just about resting the brain, but also actively using it to be more aware – which is reflected on menus across our exciting food scene. Diets of all kinds will be inspired, from gluten-free bakeries to award-winning vegan restaurants – Metro Vancouver is even the birthplace of plant-based health and nutrition brand, Vega.

MAKING TIME TO SPA-AAAAAH

Now recognized as an important element of health and wellness (not just a treat), healing treatments and massages can be found all over the city at our many restorative spas. Whether you want to indulge in the authentic traditions of Asia, a contemporary West Coast-style retreat, or the latest cleansing trend from Europe, you'll find it here.

OH(M), AND WE CAN'T FORGET YOGA

As the birthplace of yoga giant, lululemon, we were early adopters of the benefits of yoga. And today we embrace these practices more than ever – and you can too, with over 1,500 classes per week to choose from, including paddleboard yoga, mountain-top yoga and, yes, even goat yoga.

Living Mindfully

We Vancouverites care about the health and sustainability of our communities and those who visit. We stop at nothing to provide one of the cleanest, greenest environments to do so.

Vancouver, its hotels and businesses are committed to the health and wellness of visitors, and will continue to implement appropriate safety measures in line with Provincial and Federal public health protocols. COVID-19 is being effectively monitored, controlled, and treated in British Columbia and Canada, and the Province remains committed to continued enhanced protocols for health and safety.

Destination Vancouver has been awarded a Safe Travels Stamp by the World Travel & Tourism Council ("WTTC"). This stamp is the world's first ever global safety and hygiene stamp for the travel and tourism industry, and signals to the public that a destination is safe to visit.

"Once our delegates arrived in Vancouver they knew they were going to experience something truly special, exciting, and memorable. They told us that everything had exceeded their expectations, and many wanted to repeat the whole event all over again in Vancouver. This city and its infrastructure provided the perfect backdrop for our organizing committee."

Excursion Itineraries

HOURLY EXCURSIONS

Have a few hours between meetings? Here are just a few ways to spend them in and around the city.

VANCOUVER CITY TOUR

Experienced guides escort you through the magnificent 400-hectare (1,000-acre) Stanley Park, with a stop at Prospect Point, English Bay, and along fashionable Robson Street all the way to Queen Elizabeth Park, an extinct volcano, for a panoramic city view.

CANYON TO MOUNTAIN

Just across the Lions Gate Bridge to the North Shore you'll find Capilano Suspension Bridge Park, Grouse Mountain Resort – with Mountain Zip-lining or Grizzly Bear viewing in the summer, and skiing or snowshoeing in the winter – and so much more.

SEA SAFARI

Grab a seat on a deluxe inflatable outboard and take a 2.5-hour Howe Sound safari adventure to view the stunning scenery and wildlife that make the coast of British Columbia so beautiful (and world famous).

FOOD MARKET TOURS

There is no better way to take in the distinct cultures present in Vancouver than through your taste buds. Culinary-adventurers can join some of the province's top chefs for small-group guided tours of Vancouver's top foodie districts.

DAILY EXCURSIONS

Have an afternoon or a full day free? Here are a few ways to make even more of your time.

WHISTLER RESORT

A scenic trip up the Sea to Sky Highway will take you to the alpine village of Whistler. From a crisp mountain air to crystal clear lakes and lush emerald forests, Whistler Resort is a natural year-round playground.

VICTORIA

Sail through the Gulf Islands on a BC Ferry to Victoria, the province's capital city, featuring turn-of-the-century buildings, red double-decker buses, shops, cafes and world-famous Butchart Gardens.

WHALE-WATCHING ADVENTURE

Every year between May and November, Orca whales pursue migrating salmon in the Georgia Strait, and aboard a semi-covered vessel with a trained naturalist as your guide, you'll see these magnificent creatures in the wild.

HELI-RAFTING EXCURSION

Show your meeting delegates the beauty of British Columbia from both air and river on a Heli-Rafting excursion.

WHITEWATER RAFTING

Enjoy a full day of exciting Class III and IV rapids. State of the art rafts will carry you alongside inspiring wilderness, glaciers, waterfalls and spectacular wildlife in their natural habitat.

MULTI-DAY EXCURSIONS

If you've got a few days beyond your business trip, we suggest exploring beyond the city. Here are just a few things you could see and do.

WHISTLER RESORT

Just two hours from Vancouver on the scenic Sea to Sky Highway you'll find Whistler, a world-renowned ski resort and village (and our co-host of the 2010 Olympics).

VICTORIA & VANCOUVER ISLAND

A 90-minute ferry ride from Vancouver will bring you to British Columbia's capital city, Victoria (also accessible by floatplane and helicopter).

THOMPSON OKANAGAN VALLEY

A treat for the eyes and for the taste buds, the Thompson Okanagan Valley is a 4-6-hour drive, or a short flight from Vancouver (to Kamloops, Penticton or Kelowna).

TOFINO

A ferry ride followed by a few hours by car will lead you to Tofino – a coastal village on the western edge of Vancouver Island known as our province's surfer's paradise.

ROCKY MOUNTAINEER RAILTOURS

From two-days to 16-days, Rocky Mountaineer offers unique train journeys through the many landscapes of BC and Alberta.

VANCOUVER ALASKA CRUISE

From May to October, Alaska Cruises offer some of the world's most spectacular scenery.

Invite your delegates to explore a city as vibrant and alive as the nature that surrounds it. Our walkable city makes getting around a breeze, and with our many eco-friendly transit options, you'll notice that breeze is always clean. Inspire minds and fuel fresh thought with perspectives you can't find anywhere else, and experience what it's like to see the world differently, from Vancouver.

WE SHOULD WARN YOU – VANCOUVER CHANGES PEOPLE.

Their perspectives, their trajectories. There's something about this raw natural beauty, mixed with urban entrepreneurial activity that isn't just attention-grabbing. It's unignorable. It invites people in, opens their eyes and expands their minds. And when it's time to go, your delegates may find that even though they're leaving this place, this place will probably never leave them.
