

Group Activities & Team Building

There are a variety of experiences for groups to enjoy in Vancouver, WA. For help booking or coordinating any of the options below, please reach out to Jazlyn Faulstick (jfaulstick@visitvancouverwa.com).

iLani Casino

downtown, the route follows the Columbia River and offers beautiful sites along the way including the Cape Horn Lookout.

Just a 20-minute drive from downtown, iLani was developed by the Cowlitz tribe and has over 100,000 sq ft of gaming space. In addition, it hosts 18 restaurants, bars, and retail outlets.

Valiant Ballroom

Beacon Rock Trail

Beacon Rock offers incredible views of the Columbia River Gorge. It is one of the most iconic hikes on the Washington side. Though it is a 45-minute drive from Walk through a wardrobe and into the Narnia-inspired Valiant Ballroom for a magical evening. Enjoy a paint-n-sip, swing dance class, or wine tasting event with your group. Located in the heart of downtown.

Dinner at Dosalas

Dosalas Latin Kitchen & Tequila bar sits right on the waterfront providing incredible views of the Columbia River. They have uniquely crafted and presented cocktails, along with shareable plates that are served as they're prepared to create an engaging & interactive dining experience. Book the Pearl Deck for a private reception experience.

Guided Kayak Tours

Paddle through Lake River while a guide alerts your group to the various wildlife and views. Alder Creek- Ridgefield offers tours along the river year-round. The starting point is about 25-minutes away from downtown.

Haunted Walking Tour

Take a private walking tour through the downtown area to learn about Vancouver's spooky past. The director of the Clark County Historical Museum is passionate about tailoring his tours to each group to create a memorable experience.

Kiggins Theatre

Get the place to yourselves and watch a movie of your choice in Vancouver's historic Kiggins Theatre located in downtown. The concession counter is fully staffed for your group to enjoy snacks and local beer or wine.

Lucia Falls & Pomeroy Cellars

Explore Lucia Falls up close and personal as there are many access points directly onto the falls. This is a great nature experience for those who are not into hiking. The falls are less than a quarter mile from the parking lot. Afterwards, enjoy a wine tasting and tour at Pomeroy Cellars just five minutes down the road.

Big Al's

Take your group cosmic bowling in Big Al's private lounge area. There are a variety of food options including buffet style, and a full bar available. Next to the lounge area is a large arcade to enhance the experience.

Small Group Outings

Kilnfolk

Spin some clay and handcraft a pottery piece with your team at Kilnfolk Clay Studio. This adorable studio is a 7-minute walk from the waterfront, and 3-minute walk from the Convention Center.

The Source Rock Climbing

Test your strength in a team building class at The Source. With several courses and a friendly staff, this is a great outing for folks of any skill level. Located in downtown just a 5-minute walk or 2-minute drive from the Convention Center.