SIGNATURE FESTIVALS

- Waking Windows: Drawing crowds of over 8,000 people, this 12-day long festival is a multi-venue, multi-city series of events promoting music, comedy, art, food, and drink.
- Grand Point North: an annual two-day festival founded by Grace Potter & The Nocturnals held at the Waterfront Park. Attracting national audiences and crowds of over 5,000, this lively festival is a staple of Burlington, attracting attendees far and wide.
- Discover Jazz: running for over 37 years, this festival showcases Vermont and regional artists, creating a vital city-wide community festival appreciating jazz music.
- Lake Champlain Maritime Festival: taking place right at the Waterfront Park, this lively festival celebrates all things nautical, putting on free daytime shows and main events at night.

MUSIC VENUES

- ArtsRiot: a live music venue and mixed event space, located in Burlington's South End Arts district showcasing some of the best acts Burlington has to offer.

- Higher Ground: an all-ages concert venue staging top-tier talent, both national and local acts plus DJ nights.
- Cherry: a bar and performance space that features an eclectic mix of Burlington's best local performers in a funky venue.
- Radio Bean: a local music hot spot for emerging artists and regional touring acts visiting VT.
- Nectar's Live: a downtown Burlington staple in live music, comedy, and other small performances that became a legendary spot when the band Phish made their first debut.
- The Flynn Theater: a 1930 art deco theater that hosts a variety of performances and musical events located in the heart of Burlington.
- Champlain Valley Exposition: hosting over 100 events annually, including the 10-day fair that attracts over 120,000 attendees, Champlain Valley Expo is a great stop for large concerts and music events.

LOCAL CONCERT SERIES

- Burlington City Arts Concert Series: Free twice-weekly concerts featuring exclusively Vermont artists on lower Church Street. An excellent opportunity to listen to new music, have lunch with a friend, or enjoy being outside with the Burlington community supporting live music.
- Ben & Jerry's Concerts on the Green: Vermont's favorite ice cream and social activism pioneers also sponsor one of the region's favorite concert series. Partnering with promoter Higher Ground Music and hosting events at the Shelburne Museum, their Concerts on the Green showcase national acts throughout the summer and fall.
