MONTCO'S BEST Breakfast

Breakfast in Montgomery County:

Start your day with a hearty, all-American breakfast.

Montgomery County's diners, restaurants, and eateries are serving up some of the best pancakes you'll find. Here's a few of our favorites:

West Avenue Grill

ALFREDO'S RESTAURANT

Norristown

A Norristown staple, Alfredo's gets the ratios just right, so the juicy blueberries nestle comfortably in the rich batter, resulting in a fluffy, fruitful breakfast.

ANNAMARIE'S PLACE

Royersford

Annamarie's is a local favorite offering a wide variety of seasonal pancakes (snickerdoodle for December, for instance). Here's a plus: If you're in search of a gluten-free version that is full-flavor, this is the place to get it.

DADDYPOPS

Hatboro

Featured on Food Network's Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives, Daddypops is that perfect blend of excellent food at a great value. A pancake that hangs over the rim of the plate comes at a price seemingly more appropriate to a silver-dollar short-stack. Each day, Daddypops goes through nearly 200 pounds of potatoes for its beloved home fries. Since opening in 1953, Daddypops still keeps its menu old school with dishes like Philadelphia-style scrapple and scrumptious deep-fried Oreos.

G-LODGE RESTAURANT

Phoenixville

This diner-style restaurant is the great beginning to a day of exploring Valley Forge National Historical Park; given its proximity, it's possible to dig into a stack of hotcakes and then go hot on the trail of the Loyalists in experiencing our Revolutionary War history.

LANCERS DINER

Horsham

Lancers ups the ante on plain banana pancakes by adding walnuts. And then ups the ante again by mixing in a handful of chocolate chips.

SHADY MAPLE SMORGASBORD

East Earl

A little drive from Montgomery County brings pancake fans to Shady Maple, where the pancakes are freshly made and the quantities are unlimited. Kids will love the mix-ins of fruits, nuts, and even candies.

THE KITCHEN BAR

Abington

Plenty of diner-type chefs offer cinnamon pancakes. Not many stuff them with blueberry cream cheese filling the way The Kitchen Bar does.

ZAKE'S CAFE

Fort Washington

The pancakes at Zake's are so rich and decadent that they are also an offbeat lunch option. The lemon and honey flavor, served with raspberries and a drizzle of caramel sauce, works particularly well as a noontime entrée. It's a semi-sweet dream that nearly floats off the platter.

G-Lodge Restaurant

Got room for more?

No need to worry!

POTTS & PENN FAMILY DINER

Pottstown

If you're in search of irresistible desserts, look no further than Potts & Penn Family Diner. As one of Pottstown's most well-known spots, this diner is a favorite destination for visitors and locals alike. Nestled in the northwest corner of Montgomery County, Potts & Penn has just about every meal you can imagine. Stop by to enjoy one of the hundreds of delightful meals and delicious homemade desserts.

WEST AVENUE GRILL

Jenkintown

Since opening its doors in 2001, West Avenue Grill has become a staple within the Jenkintown community. This family-owned restaurant specializes in serving up delicious American cuisine; breakfast, lunch, and dinner at any time of the day. No matter what you're craving, West Avenue Grill is ready to be your new go-to.

POTTSTOWN

Pottstown is going through a rebirth and what is really coming alive is the #pottstowndiningscene. The only problem you'll have is deciding where to eat breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

BREAKFAST:

One of the best things about Pottstown is many restaurants' use of local farm-fresh ingredients. The High Street Terminal, for instance, located at 300 E. High Street, offers a whole host of dishes for any appetite—coffee, bagels, tacos, cupcakes, sushi, and more. Also look for Flavors Deli, Seed & Soil, Barristers Bagels, Honey's Homebrewed Cafe, Aye Caramba Taco (check out the street corn and chipotle sweet potatoes), and so many yummy others.

Start off early and arrive hungry for breakfast with Grumpy's Hand-carved Sandwiches. Choose from unique dishes like wild blueberry pancakes, Cap'n Crunch french toast, and chorizo sausage sliders. Sip locally roasted coffees by Twin Valley Coffee, out of Elverson. Grumpy's also offers brunch at Manatawny Still Works on various days.

The Ice House, a Pottstown mainstay, caters to families for breakfast, lunch and dinner, but their breakfast is where it's at. The Ice House omelet, the Yehaw wrap, or the skillet with potato cakes on a Sunday morning will wake up your taste buds.

Swing by Three Brothers Grill—they are open for all meals, but the breakfast burrito and huevos rancheros will spice up your morning meal.

Finally, if you need any more breakfast choices, hit up Shorty's Sunflower Café for brunch, and don't miss their specials, such as decadent Pecan Toffee Bread French Toast.

LUNCHTIME:

A longtime favorite, The Very Best Weiner Shop, has recently re-opened its doors, offering a host of nostalgic fare, including hot dogs, steaks, hoagies, burgers, fries, and shakes.

iCreate Café, a vegan kitchen, offers fresh Mediterranean cuisine focused on a healthier menu with salads, soups, wraps, burgers, and smoothies.

Montesano Soup Café has opened just in time for Fall—with a full menu of delicious soul-warming soups like broccoli cheddar, Maryland crab, and chicken pot pie.

DINE ALL DAY #pottstowndiningscene

HAPPY HOUR:

Start on the outskirts of Pottstown at Manatawny Still Works' tasting room and try unique cocktails from their own distillery (you can even get a tour on certain days). If beer is more to your liking, hop across Circle of Progress Drive to Sly Fox's brewery and headquarters for amazing craft beers and fun pub fare. Head into town to sample a libation at Kiki Vodka Bar like the Bloody Johnny or their fun vodka martinis.

DINNERTIME:

Stop into Lily's Grill (also open for lunch), now partnering with moss wines for a cool glass of wine to complement your Tuna Tower, blueberry scallops, or gorgonzola New York strip. Lily's offers American cuisine with an elegant flair that elevates dinnertime dishes to a new level.

Hit up Welcome to the Avenue, featuring exotic Caribbean food. It's delicious, with vegetarian hot pot bowls, plantains, jerk chicken, oxtail soup, and fish & chips.

Is it date night? Head to Juan Carlos Fine Mexican Cuisine, served with South American flair. BYOB and prepare to relax and enjoy your favorite tequila with sweet margarita mixes: passion fruit, lime or guava & mango.

Need some Thai in your life? Newly opened Blue Elephant features Asian fusion in a gorgeous setting, and a place Pottstown Mayor Stephanie Henrick is thrilled to visit.

DESSERT:

Got to satisfy that sweet tooth? Head over to Beverly's Pastry Shop on High Street. Owner and pastry chef Kristen Sirbak and her team are always rolling out something sweet and amazing, like tangy key limes pies, which are light and full of citrus flavor and with a bit of crunch from a graham cracker crust. Beverly's is open Wednesday through Saturday and offers a delicious variety of mouth-watering cupcakes, cookies, dessert bars, mini pies, as well as a gluten free and a vegan section of dessert bars and cupcakes.

Head to Rivster's on High for a scoop of Nelson's Ice Cream in sundaes, shakes, scoops, floats, and more.

OTHER FUN POTTSTOWN PLACES:

Every market morning at Pottstown FARM—the outdoor farmers market—you can find fresh produce, local honey, bread, meat, coffee, and hand-made artisan items. The Musket's fun Two Bite Club for kids is sponsored by the Pottstown Area Health and Wellness Foundation. Kids can earn a coin to spend at the market if they have a sample of fruit or something else from the market, with different samples each time. Check the website for FARM market days.

Need a place to watch the Eagles game? Hang your hat at Pottstown United Brewing Company for brews and bites. The PUB is a brewpub started by Adam Burke of Lily's Grill and Steve Armstrong of Armstrong Ales LLC. Head Brewer Brendan Breslin loves the Pottstown vibe and creating different ales with local fruits, like a sour IPA with raspberries.

Stay for a show at Steel River Playhouse and snuggle up for the night at Three Daughters Inn. Be sure to save room for breakfast in the morning to try a few more great Pottstown places. And stay tuned, because new delicious destinations are popping up in Pottstown every day.

MORNING:

Wander into Skippack Village for great shopping, people-watching, and food. Most of the Skippack restaurants and shops are locally owned and operated, and meeting the owners is always a real treat. Be sure to stop in many of the boutiques and eateries.

The Energy Station offers grab-and-go breakfast sandwiches, coffee, and tea, for when you're in a hurry. For a more leisurely bite, take a moment to relax and have some comfort food to give you "energy" to start your day. Mal's American Diner in Skippack is a great place to do that, too, offering a taste of 50s nostalgia alongside your raisin French toast, eggs, or waffles.

Brothers Kershner Brewing Co.

NOON:

For lunch, you definitely have your pick. Fuel up with 'feine when you need to perk up and start your shopping in the Skippack Italian Market for an early lunch. The Skippack Italian Market gives you the opportunity to eat AND shop! Equal parts catering, deli, shoppe, and country store, you'll find something to nosh on now or later. Delicious hoagies, meats, cheeses, imported olive oil, plus yummy appetizers—garlic parmesan fries, asiago spinach and artichoke dip, and arancini definitely keep the hunger pangs at bay.

If you're in the mood for vegetarian cuisine, check out Cabbage, where you can try the soup of the day, like Mushroom Barley, the spread of the day, like spicy pinto bean, or delicious hearty fare, like vegan chili. The salads, like roasted beet, are a crowd favorite too.

SNACK/HAPPY HOUR

In the mood for a little after-work happiness? Look no further than the fantastic breweries in the area! Brothers Kershner Brewing Co. keeps the beer a-brewin' with selective and creative brews.

The Butcher and Barkeep

NIGHT:

Start with a draft beer or a carefully crafted cocktail and some tapas and relax—you've had a long day! The Butcher and Barkeep in Harleysville is truly a place you can sit back and mull over the day's events. The BLT, Cubano, or the Short Rib sandwiches melt in your mouth, while the small plates of avocado bruschetta, bouillabaisse, fried green tomatoes, St. Louis ribs, or the Tuna Poke all offer a great nosh. But the real winners here at the B & B are the Shrimp & Grits (cheesy grits with Carolina shrimp and andouille-bell pepper cream) or the chicken and waffles (cornmeal waffles, Southern-fried chicken tenders covered in pepper jelly, and Fruity Pebbles butter) with a side of Sexy Fries—truffled fries sprinkled in fresh herbs and parmesan. We promise you'll never look at fries the same way again.

If you are looking for a fun, eclectic, and super delicious night out, you've found it in 19 Bella. Just outside Skippack in Cedars, this funky BYOB restaurant serves up lunch and dinner tapas-style on cute plates (you can even buy some of the fine and fun china you see). Be prepared for small plates where everyone can share and have a taste.

Menu items like the lobster mac and cheese, zucchini pancakes, beet salad, local wild mushrooms risotto, farrotto and beef, and filet mignon Oscar with lump crab, grilled veal chop, and Portuguese sea scallops all will tickle your taste buds. Be sure to order several dishes for the table. Or, go wild and order the Chef's Choice from the "Blind Menu of Confidence Tasting" to try new items. Save room for dessert!

You'll see Justin's Carriage House on the way into Skippack Village, so stop off and try some food while you're in town. The sweet and spicy filet tips are a fan favorite, with hot crab dip, nachos supreme, black and bleu caesar salad, and the flatbread pizzas scoring big.

Have dinner, a nightcap, and perhaps even stay over in Skippack Village. After dining in one of their three restaurants, why not stay at the sophisticated Hotel Fiesole? Mistral and Stefano's each offer fine dining in Continental European cuisine while the Ferrari-themed Bella Rossa offers a more casual Italian dining atmosphere. If you just want a drink to finish the evening, the Trolley Bar right off the lobby is a great place to relax in an old, restored trolley. Plus, there's live music and entertainment held weekly in the Rathskeller.

Smoked ribs, burgers, brisket, and chicken are delicious, and luckily, Montco has no shortage of excellent places that offer great smoked flavor and BBQ styles (ahem, the rub, or sauce) all year round for all palates.

Gluten-Free

A LOT of Eateries in Montco

of foods contain wheat gluten, and unfortunately, many people have an allergy or intolerance to gluten. Trying to find tasty foods can be difficult when gluten is eliminated from a diet. Gluten is the combination of two proteins—glutenin and gliadin—that are found in rye, barley, and wheat. This puts gluten in a huge amount of food products—from cereal and bagels to ice cream to soy sauce.

A gluten allergy or intolerance can lead to stomach discomfort or worse, so finding a good meal out can be tricky. However, we've found some of the best places in Montco that offer gluten-free and gluten-friendly meals, so that those with gluten allergies or intolerances can relax and go out to eat. Look for the "GF" next to menu items, and, if you have a serious allergy (like celiac disease), always ask the server if the items are made in a separate pan with separate utensils so there's no cross-contamination.

Start your day in North Wales at The Green Fork and Local Roots Market.

Rise and shine with their breakfast dishes, many of which are gluten-free, like the strawberry shortcake pancakes, the huevos rancheros flatbread, or the waffle eggs benedict.

They offer lunch and dinner too, with entrées such as the down-south shrimp & grits, veggie and chick-pea curry, and Fettuccine Caulifredo. They can make many of their entrées into GF as needed—just look for this symbol next to the menu item: L (V A) Vegan Available $ / (GF A) Gluten Free Available $1.

Zakes Café in Fort Washington is a local best-kept secret, but the word is out now, and their menu shows the love for those who are gluten-intolerant. Soups like carrot ginger and chicken, mushroom, and wild rice are full of flavor and gluten-friendly, as are their lunch entrées of lemongrass grilled salmon with asparagus, Saigon rice paper rolls, or the grilled flank steak.

Chow Bistro in Collegeville offers brunch and dinner in a fun setting.

BYOB and "chow" down on some American contemporary gluten-free entrées, like the shrimp and crabmeat risotto, shrimp & grits, center-cut filet mignon, roasted veggies, Thai red curry, and pan-seared sea scallops.

Also try the parmesan-crusted chicken caprese with zucchini noodles and the braised beef short ribs with mashed potatoes. All these items are full of fresh, local flavor and are gluten-free!

Seafood risotto

In the mood for sushi? Japanese spot OOKA in Montgomeryville serves up gluten-free fare with flair.

Most of their sushi and hibachi items are GF or can be made gluten-free, and they serve gluten-free soy sauce, eel sauce, and spicy mayo.

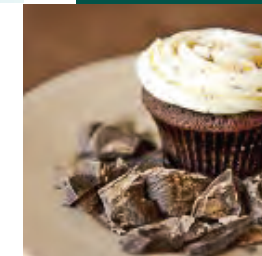

Sunflower seed, tuna, avocado, kale, baked sweet potato, stuffed with black beans, red cabbage, and cashew nacho sauce

Need a quick GF lunch, or even vegan or dairy-free? Look no further than Gangster Vegan Organics in Norristown, where every single item is vegan, 100%-organic, gluten-free, soy free, and/or refined sugar-free. Try their smoothies, wellness shots, juices, bowls, burgers, or desserts.

For dessert, hit up Sublime Cupcakes in Collegeville.

On Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays, their menu expands to delicious gluten-free cupcakes: Black & White Cupcakes (chocolate cake with vanilla buttercream), G-F PB Cup (gluten-free chocolate cake with peanut butter frosting), or try the G-F Snowball. (Call to confirm cupcakes are available in-house.)
