THE OFFICIAL DINING MAGAZINE OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA

Chef's Spotlight: The Mill

By Katie Kohler

One of the many great things about dining in Montgomery County is that some of the buildings that house the restaurants have a bit of history.

Take The Mill in Kulpsville for instance. It was built in 1894 and then called The Kulpsville Feed Mill which sold feed, flour, coal and other farm home supplies for eighty years. Over the course of the following decades, The Mill was sold a few times.

In 2015, The Mill got a makeover but kept its rustic charm. Owners Greg Moore, his brother Dan and wife, Marie Moore, renovated the historic building to truly showcase the beauty, especially the brick walls. The Mill also displays old restored wooden wheels, pulleys, and old photographs of Sumneytown Pike and Kulpsville from the late 19th and early 20th century.

When you are looking for a rustic, historic place to dine with a menu full of choices, The Mill is a great choice. The menu features comfort food, hearty sandwiches and wood-fired pizza.

FAVORITES ON THE MENU INCLUDE:

- Wood-oven pizzas
- Creative burgers
- Updated comfort food

The menu is made with locally sourced ingredients and created by Chef de Cuisine and Manager, Danielle Moore, Dan and Marie's daughter. Danielle Moore is a graduate of The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College in Philadelphia.

At The Mill, guests can choose to visit "Upstairs at The Mill" for a seated dining area. It's a BYOB so you can bring your favorite bottle to accompany your meal in the warm and comfortable space. On the go? On the first floor, there is a counter for self-service and take out.

At The Mill, you'll find some menu items you would be hard-pressed to find anywhere else...and then wonder why they aren't.

Brothers Kershner Brewing Offers Ales and Atmosphere

By Christine Tarlecki

What's better than enjoying the crisp fall air, the beauty of the leaves, and the scent of woodsmoke? Enjoying that plus a delicious beer that is brewed with brotherly love? Heck yeah! Now open all week, the Brothers Kershner Brewing Company offers outdoor seating, take out beer, and curbside pickup.*

The Brothers Kershner seeks to offer a place of solace and great beer! Come ready to check it ALL at the door! They pride themselves on creating an environment that invites and unwinds, so kick back and enjoy. They have a great atmosphere, incredible crew and service, and the well-rounded, approachable brews.

In the current climate, one can't be too careful while enjoying your favorite Brothers Kershner Pale Ale, so they've set up an online store and started delivery service, expanded their outdoor service accommodations, reintroduced indoor seating options, and are phasing in cold weather plans.

Brothers Basil and Kevin, the aforementioned Kershner Brothers, began this brewery to bring great beer to good people. Their passions are beer and people, and this brewery brings together people with a love of great, locally crafted beer. With a tap list that offers something for every taste and season, this brewery knows how to make their customers feel right at home.

Currently the Märzen Autumnn is a fall favorite along with the aptly named beloved Pugsly Porter make a perfect transition into the colder months ahead. Their Fiddy Dunn Boom, a 8.3% classic double IPA, is due out soon. Their barrel program is well underway, and they will be fall and winter releases of various barrel-aged porters, stouts, saisons and lambic-style ales. Plus, there's a few locally sourced barrel beers featuring Deer Creek Malthouse malts, and their international styles feature malts from Germany, Belgium, and Czech Republic.

Co-owner Kevin says the most rewarding part of a brewer's journey is the connection with our customers through the ales and lagers they brew.

Enjoy a brew at the Brothers Kershner Brewery and start your Fall feeling fine.
