SHENANDOAH

 VALLEY
 The SHENANDOAH VALLEY reveals stunning natural beauty with each changing season. With the Blue Ridge Mountains to the east and Alleghenies to the west, its rich agricultural roots have created apple.

reconnect with both the land and the locals - at pick-your own farms, familyowned wineries and breweries, and authentic farm-to-table experiences. Straddling Interstate 81 for approximately 140 miles, this region is the ideal getaway for friends and families seeking fresh-air fun, coupling word-class outdoor assets and mountain-centric resorts and cabins.

Add these experiences to your travel bucket list for the region! Wavnesboro

Staunton

Blandy Experimental Farm, Boyce A 700-acre research field station for the University of Virginia, this farm is also home to the State Arboretum of Virginia, where the grounds are open to the public free of charge, 365 days a year, from dawn to dusk. Opportunities abound for tours, including self-guided, as well as book, sketch and photo clubs, educational programs and annual events.

Claudius Crozet Blue Ridge Tunnel,

This tunnel was once part of a historic railroad built during the 1850s. Hikers, bikers, history buffs and railroad enthusiasts will be amazed as they jog, bike or walk through the restored tunnel, all the while admiring the raw, exposed rock, brick walls and ceiling. Make sure to bring your flashlights and headlamps!

Queen City Mischief & Magic Festival,

If wizards and beasts are a magical combination for your family, don't miss this festival, where historic downtown is transformed into a wizard-friendly village and local businesses reinvent themselves with magic-themed shopping, dining and hands-on activities for all ages.

The Pancake Underground, Strasburg

Don't miss the most important meal of your day! Their locally sourced foods from nearby farms and orchards make it truly communityoriented and round out their full menu of breakfast favorites, from chicken and waffles and shrimp and grits to banana pudding pancakes and build-your-own country potato bowls.

Vault & Cellar, Middletown

Offering a unique, upscale twist on traditional Appalachian fare (and more than 100 bourbons!), this modern tavern-style bistro is both sophisticated and approachable, with a dynamic menu that reflects the freshest ingredients sourced from local and regional small businesses.

Devil's Marbleyard, Lexington

Do some rock-hopping and enjoy a different natural view than you'll get on any other hike in the region. But this hike is not for the faint of heart, as its steep and rocky terrain can be challenging to even the most experienced outdoor enthusiast.

Welcome to geology's hall of fame.

Baseball has one. Rock and roll has one. And although it took millions of years, the earth has one, too. And step-free access with well-lit, well-paved walkways stretching throughout, you can easily stroll through rooms 10 stories high, marvel at the enormous columns and crystal-clear pools, and of course, hear the world's largest musical instrument, the Great Stalacpipe Organ.

It's time to discover the most cavernous caverns on the East Coast. It's time to discover Luray. For a free brochure, call (540) 746-6551 or visit us online at LurayCaverns.com.
