

BERRY HILL RESORT South Boston

Add these experiences to your travel bucket list for the region!

Staunton River State Park, Halifax

With access to Virginia's largest lake, Buggs Island Lake, visitors can enjoy freshwater fishing and boating, along with other aquatic activities such as water skiing and paddling. The park is also an International Dark Sky Park, ideal for stargazing and offering interpretive programs and telescope rentals.

Night Fishing in Clarksville, Clarksville

This freshwater nighttime event boasts 76 fluorescent green Hydro Glow lights that not only make night fishing fun, but fruitful, as the glow of underwater lights attracts millions of tiny feeder fish that attract even larger game fish. It's the perfect sport for those who sunburn easily, want to maximize the day's catch or simply try something a little off the beaten path.

Museum Sleepover at the Virginia Museum of Natural History, Martinsville

A night at the museum unlike any other! Participate in a museum sleepover, with hands-on exploration and programs, pizza dinner, certificate and more. They even offer Scout sleepovers, a unique opportunity to work on badge requirements and have fun with friends.

Rosemont Winery, La Crosse

This historic 450-acre estate dates back to the mid-1700s and offers gorgeous views in addition to award-winning wines. While you're there, take a tour or peruse their art gallery, showcasing local talents in acrylics, woodworking, jewelry, photography and more.

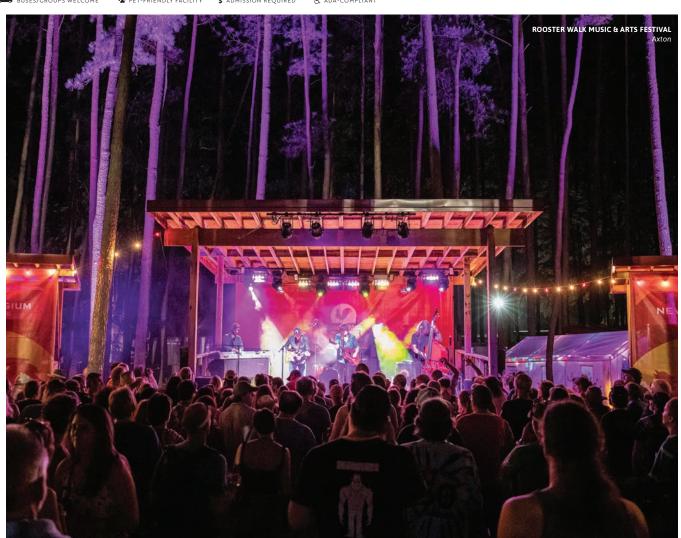

U.S. Civil Rights Trail, Danville

Danville's recent addition to the national Trail is testament to its influential role in the Civil Rights movement. Explore the city's history and impact at the Danville Museum of Fine Arts and History, where the exhibit "The Movement" explores video and audio testimony of the local struggle for integration. DMFAH serves as an informative trail-head to other notable sites and powerful stories as well.

Rooster Walk, Axton

Music lovers can hear from over 40 bands across six stages, with an eclectic roster that offers a little bit of everything. The family-friendly event offers kids' activities, craft beer, food, arts and numerous opportunities to enjoy the great outdoors with kayak tours, bike rides, yoga, disc golf and on-site camping.
