Coastal Virginia boasts the best of both worlds. Comprising the Virginia peninsula, the region kisses both the Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean, revealing endless waterfronts to explore. Inland, you will find cities and green spaces that echo the early history of the United States. It’s no wonder this region attracts visitors near and far.

EXPERIENCES THAT DEFINE THE REGION

The Water
Coastal Virginia holds some of Virginia’s most coveted coastlines. Waterfronts, harbors and beaches draw both locals and visitors, convincing everyone to spend some time in the sun.

The Colonial History
For those curious about the very beginnings of the United States, Coastal Virginia is a must-visit. Home to the first permanent settlement in America, Jamestown, and many other centuries-old sites like Colonial Williamsburg and Yorktown, this region brings American history to life.

The Food
With the benefits of both land and sea, Coastal Virginia maintains a competitive - and mouth-watering - culinary scene. The eateries are mostly independent and owner-operated, keeping dishes local and exciting. Plus, with lots of food trucks and food festivals around, foodies can always find new flavors.

WHAT WE RECOMMEND FOR FIRST-TIMERS

Explore Colonial Williamsburg
Take a time machine back to the 18th Century with a visit to Colonial Williamsburg, the world’s largest living history museum. Don’t forget to check their events calendar for curated re-enactments, from witch trials to military drills.

Downtown Smithfield
It may be known as the “The Ham Capital of the World,” but Smithfield is more than just cured meat. Its historic downtown channels all the Southern charm, with local eats, antique shops and gorgeous Victorian homes.

ViBe Creative District
Add more color to your beach trip with a visit to the ViBe - Virginia Beach’s vibrant arts district. It’s the perfect post-beach excursion. There’s always art to see, tunes to hear and cool folks to meet, brightening up even the sunniest beach day. Be sure to swing by The Pink Dinghy for a tasty bite in a uniquely chic setting.

LOCAL FAVORITES

The Deadrise
Fresh seafood on the water? Count us in. The Deadrise is a die-hard local spot in historic Fort Monroe, serving up the local catch right on the Old Comfort Marina. Even if you’re not a seafood lover, there are options for meat lovers, too - and, yes, they do come with an awesome waterfront view.

False Cape State Park
Explore the pristine beaches of one of Virginia’s best-kept secrets. This state park is only accessible via tram, followed by a short walk or bike to dunes and sprawling white sandy beaches.

O’s Donuts
What could be better than a fresh, warm donut? Locals in Norfolk flock to O’s to indulge in made-to-order donuts, with a variety of fun flavors. Pair it with one of their freshly brewed coffees, and you’ll be in heaven.

SANDBRIDGE BEACH
Virginia Beach
For your next inspired excursion, experience the defining attractions of Hampton, where modern leisure meets historic legacy. This waterfront gem in the heart of Hampton Roads draws visitors from all over for its coastal charms, seaside adventures, and storied landmarks that tell the story of “America’s Gateway.”

Here are five Hampton experiences you’d be remiss to miss!

LOUNGE OR PLAY AT BUCKROE BEACH
Families, beach bums, and ocean adventurers alike will love Buckroe Beach. Soak up the sun and dip your toes in the surf while enjoying the widescreen views of Chesapeake Bay; ride the waves on a jet ski or paddleboard; or sail the harbor for your next catch.

EXPLORE FREEDOM’S FORTRESS
Fort Monroe was the port of entry where first Africans to arrive in English-speaking North America were brought and was later a Union safe haven for freedom-seekers during the Civil War. Experience this profound history at Fort Monroe National Monument through exhibits and galleries detailing “Freedom’s Fortress.”

REACH FOR THE STARS
Home to NASA’s Langley Research Center, Hampton played a vital part in putting a person on the moon. Today, visitors of all ages can marvel at the miracle of space travel in the updated Virginia Air & Space Science Center, with artifacts like the Apollo 12 command module and interactive exhibits like the Solarium and the Space Exploration Gallery.

EXPERIENCE A PEOPLE’S HISTORY, PRESERVED
Witness the evolution of Hampton—from its pre-colonial indigenous inhabitants to its role in the U.S. space program—at Hampton History Museum. Immerse in the rich art and artifacts of Hampton University Museum, or trace the Black experience over the centuries on the 400 Years Forward driving tour.

TAKE A CRUISE FIT FOR A QUEEN
Tour in style on the all-new Hampton Queen, operated by Hampton Roads Harbor Tours. Daily cruises from Hampton Maritime Center offer narrated tours of the scenic harbor and its historic touchstones.

Get inspired and explore Hampton! Plan your trip at VisitHampton.com
