THE TRIFECTA: BEAUTY, CLIMATE AND ACCESS

VIRGINIA'S IDEAL LOCATION in the Southern Mid-Atlantic makes it a perfect golf destination. The state is within a day's drive of 60% of the U.S. population – and much of southeastern Canada; the nation's capital, Atlantic beaches and mile-high mountains are all in close proximity. Major Interstates and U.S. highways connect a variety of golf experiences near bustling cities and quaint small towns – in a climate that's just right.

VIRGINIA'S GREAT WEATHER, combined with its scenic landscape that ranges from Atlantic Coast to rolling piedmont to mile-high mountains, creates a golf destination that is as alluring and accessible as anywhere in eastern North America. Even at its most mountainous reaches, Virginia has a temperate, inviting climate for most of the year, with all regions averaging more than 200 days of sun per year!

VIRGINIA'S DIVERSE TERRAIN, from sea-level coastal areas to mile-high mountains (1,600 meters-plus), offers a wide range of playing challenges, not to mention breathtaking views.

THIS DIRECTORY provides regional lists of Virginia golf courses open to the public. Each region offers a map with numbers, for general location reference, that correspond to the listed courses.

VISITORS ARE WELCOME at these listed courses; all are either fully public, semi-private (daily rates for play), military (play with a service member) or offer resort play.

All course information was verified in September 2021; please call ahead to confirm, as specific details may change.

The sense of history and the good life are palpable in CENTRAL & SOUTHERN VIRGINIA. With presidential homes, dozens of fine wineries, stunning resorts and scenic beauty, it's no surprise that the golf offerings are equally inviting.
