KAITLIN HANSON

Visitor Experience & Outreach Director

Time w/ Tourism: 6 Years

Key Roles: Business Outreach & Communication, Events, Social Media

About: A Washburn County native, Kaitlin joined the tourism team as an intern during the summer of 2016. After receiving her Bachelor's Degree in Recreation Tourism from Winona State, Kaitlin moved back to team up with Michelle promoting the area she loves so much. Her passion to see Washburn County's businesses thrive is unparalleled and has led to the creation of her new position. She now raises her little one to enjoy all the things Washburn County has to offer just as she did.

Ways to Participate

The WashCo Tourism Team operates a full-service visitor center for Washburn County's travelers at 122 N. River Street in Spooner. The Visitor Experience Representatives are well-trained to promote our area businesses and events. Acting as a welcoming committee for visitors is our specialty. Our goal is for everyone who walks through the visitor center to fall in love with Washburn County! The visitor center offers a variety of business information, maps, trail information, and regional publications in a comfortable, welcoming environment. Be sure to check out the Visit WashCo Mural, the giant Wisconsin photo opp and the Hidden Gems attraction display at the Visitor Center!

SO...WHAT DO WE DO AND HOW CAN IT HELP YOUR BUSINESS?

The WashCo Tourism Team executes a dynamic marketing plan to promote the entire Washburn County area in the midwest market. Our team operates the official Washburn County Tourism website (WashburnCounty.org) and produces the Washburn County Official Guide, Highway Map and Trail/Outdoor Guide, and many other local brochures. The team manages the Washburn County, WI social media platforms, the WashCo Compass Blog and E-newsletter, coordinates the county events calendar, and much more. Everything that the tourism team does is meant to draw visitors to our area, fulfilling our vision of positioning Washburn County, WI as the premier Northwoods destination to visit, live and work.
