

Purdue Bug Bowl

Clegg Memorial Garden

Haan Museum Sculpture Garden

Free & Fun Spring Things To Do

LAFAYETTE WEST LAFAYETTE

- Stop by the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to explore our website at HomeOfPurdue.com or follow the link below.
- Go to the Clegg Memorial Garden and enjoy all the beautiful spring wild flowers.
- Plan a picnic at one of our 50+ parks in the county, including several with a riverfront view.
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Explore over 119 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Observe wildlife at the Ouatatonon Preserve Overlook, a National Historic Landmark.
- Whistle when you go past the mural on the Art Museum of Greater Lafayette and then go inside and look at all the great art!
- Delight in Indiana's natural beauty along with over 25 sculptures created by notable Indiana artists at the Haan Museum Sculpture Garden.
- Swing by one of our libraries and find books to help you plan the perfect garden.
- Test your stomach by eating bugs at Purdue's Bug Bowl in mid-April or you can just watch.
- Enjoy the multi-age playground, bring a pole and try to catch a fish in the pond or walk the trails at Armstrong Park.

SCAN ME
homeofpurdue.com

- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the spring events throughout the community!
- Take a Frisbee to Purdue University for a round of disc golf.

Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette • 765-447-9999
homeofpurdue.com

festivals and events

public art trail

miles and miles of trailways

Free & Fun Summer Things To Do

IN LAFAYETTE WEST LAFAYETTE

- Stop by the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to explore our website at HomeOfPurdue.com or follow the link below.

SCAN ME
homeofpurdue.com

Farmers Market

- Experience Mosey Down Main Street... this downtown, family friendly event is once a month, May through September, and offers live music and great entertainment.
- Grab a partner and hit the McCaw Park pickleball courts!
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Bring your lunch to the John T. Myers Pedestrian Bridge and watch people pass by.
- Enjoy the conversation, free sights and great smells at the Farmers' Markets every Saturday morning downtown Lafayette, Wednesday afternoon in West Lafayette and Thursday at Purdue from May through October.
- Bring your walking shoes, sunglasses (or reading glasses), and stroll the "Stories On The Prairie" at the Wea Prairie Branch Library.
- Discover the branches of your family tree at the Frank Arganbright Genealogy Center.
- Explore over 119 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Follow the tree trail around Purdue University and marvel at the beauty of the fountains and art.
- Take a walking tour through one of our historic neighborhoods. Visit tourdelafayette.com for additional locations and maps.
- Grab your canoe or kayak and head to the Bicentennial Nature Area or one of the other waterways in Tippecanoe County.
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the summer events throughout the community!

Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette • 765-447-9999
homeofpurdue.com

Purdue Homecoming

Farmers Markets

miles and miles of trailways

Free & Fun Autumn Things To Do

LAFAYETTE WEST LAFAYETTE

- Stop by the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to explore our website at HomeOfPurdue.com or follow the link below.

SCAN ME
homeofpurdue.com

Wea Creek Orchard

- Attend a free pre-game concert at Slayter Center, 90 minutes before a Purdue home football game.
- Drive through one of our historic neighborhoods and savor the interesting architecture. Visit tourdelafayette.com for additional info.
- Take a picnic lunch to Tapawingo Park and enjoy sitting "on the banks of the Wabash."
- See fall color along the Wabash Heritage Trail while you observe wildlife along the river.
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Explore over 119 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Take advantage of the Farmers' Markets during their last month (October) of operation until next spring.
- Take a wagon ride through the pumpkin fields and apple trees at Wea Creek Orchard.
- Visit the Purdue Welcome Center, in Stewart Center at Purdue, and discover all the reasons we are "Purdue Proud" in our community.
- Show your Boilermaker pride at Purdue Homecoming events, Homecoming Parade, Boilermaker Crossing events, and Purdue Reamer Club Free Ride Fridays.
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the autumn events throughout the community.

Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette • 765-447-9999
homeofpurdue.com

sledding & snowman making

Lighted
Christmas
Parade

Free & Fun Winter Things To Do

IN LAFAYETTE WEST LAFAYETTE

- Stop by the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to explore our website at HomeOfPurdue.com or follow the link below.
- Take a self-guided holiday tour through one of our nine historic neighborhoods. Enjoy the breathtaking luminaria lining Historic Ninth Street Hill during the holidays.
- Visit the Purdue Memorial Union to see one of the largest indoor trees in Indiana, decorated for the holidays.
- Walk or drive through the Living Nativity with 14 life-size outdoor scenes with live animals! Held at the Faith Church, off of SR26.
- Take a walk through Chauncey Village and smell the vast culinary delights of different ethnic cuisines.
- Go sledding at Slayter Hill or Murdock Park. Build a snowman at any of our 50+ area parks.
- Visit the Purdue University Galleries to view a variety of art forms and exhibits.
- Attend a program at the Tippecanoe County Public Library. Or read the perfect cookbook for hot chocolate and holiday cookies.
- Enjoy 119+ snow covered pieces of public art. Explore the selection and map your route at HomeOfPurdue.com.
- See the exhibits at the Dauch Alumni Center and discover all of the reasons we are "Purdue Proud."
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the winter events throughout the community!
- Take on an online Lafayette-West Lafayette jigsaw puzzle at jigsawplanet.com/homeofpurdue
- Attend the annual lighted Christmas Parade on the first Saturday in December.
- Head to Prophetstown State Park and discover the Circle of Stones, trails, birds and wildlife. The park is free during off-season.

SCAN ME
homeofpurdue.com

Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette • 765-447-9999
homeofpurdue.com