Day Three

sample itinerary

8:30 to 10:30 a.m. — Tour SAMARA to see one of the most complete Frank Lloyd Wright designed homes in the United States. Designated a National Historic Landmark in 2015.

10:45 to 11:45 a.m. — Check out the Lafayette Farmers Market, serving locals since 1839. It's the longest running, continuous Farmers Market in Indiana. Enjoy sweet treats, farm fresh produce, crafts and live entertainment. (Saturday mornings, May -October 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.)

12:00 to 1:30 p.m. — Have lunch at Lafayette Brewing Company, the first brewery to receive Indiana's small brewers permit and currently the 2nd oldest operating brewery in the state.

1:30 to 3:00 p.m. — Explore the many eclectic and artisan shops located downtown, along Main Street, as you enjoy the turn-of-the century architecture; Artists' Own, Kathy's Kandies, LE Originals, Main Street Mercantile, McCord Candies, and Two Tulips are some of the places not to miss but there are many more!

3:15 to 5:00 p.m. — Mingle with the animals at the petting zoo, walk among wallabies, crawl through prairie dog tunnels and explore other exhibits at the Columbian Park Zoo, the second oldest zoo in Indiana dating back to 1908. Home to nearly 200 animals representing 90 species. Be sure to walk across the street to the Original Frozen Custard to grab a sweet treat or a flavored soda before or after your visit to the zoo. The oldest family owned and operated Drive-In in Indiana, now with the 5th generation of the family working there although no longer a Drive-In. The iconic art deco building with the neon lights and sign on top add to the nostalgia! (both are seasonal)
