

LAFAYETTE - WEST LAFAYETTE

Savory Adventures

3 Day Tour

Day One

sample itinerary

10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. — Discover Prophetstown State Park. Shaped by glacial ice, moving water, fire, and human hands, this park is the site where the Native American people hunted and lived along the Tippecanoe and Wabash rivers. Paired with The Farm at Prophetstown, guests can experience 1920s farming techniques and learn about Native American Life in the early 1800s. Enjoy a program about using wild plants in cooking or a canning/preservation class.

Prophetstown State Park

1:00 to 3:20 p.m. — Lunch at a strip that includes Thai Essence, Penn Station, West Side Diner and Dominos. After lunch, do some shopping at Kitchen Art - The Store for Cooks and Gretel's Fine Gifts.

Kitchen Art - The Store for Cooks

3:30 to 4:30 p.m. — Explore the West Lafayette Farmers Market (Wednesday evenings, May-October). Meander the booths filled with locally grown produce, honey, jams, wine and crafts. Enjoy live entertainment at the Market or walking the trail at Cumberland Park. Grab a quick snack from one of the food trucks or booths, but don't ruin your appetite.

4:45 to 5:45 p.m. Beer tasting and tour at Brokerage Brewery.

6:00 to 7:30 p.m. — Dinner at Bruno's, a Swiss and Italian Restaurant in West Lafayette, a local favorite for more than 60 years.

8:00 p.m. — Check in at hotel and relax for the evening.

Day Two

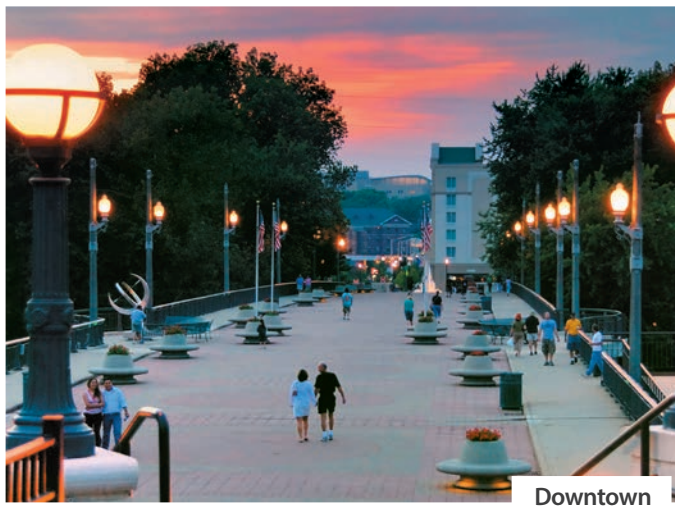

sample itinerary

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel.

8:30 to 9:30 a.m. — Tour Tippco Fish to learn how tilapia is raised.

9:45 to 11:00 a.m.
— Spend some time exploring the Wea Creek Orchard. Pick your own apples, peaches, nectarines and pumpkins. Take a wagon ride through the orchard and shop for honey, jams, jellies, cider, candles and more at the Market. (Seasonal)

11:30 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. — Dine at the John Purdue Room at Marriott Hall, Purdue University - A laboratory, training Hospitality and Tourism Management Students in food preparation and service. After lunch, tour the kitchen, demonstration kitchen and the rest of the building (pending availability).

Purdue University

Wea Creek Orchard

1:45 to 2:30 p.m. — Meet a step on guide for a tour of Purdue University and Downtown Lafayette - West Lafayette. Learn about all of Purdue, but also about the greenhouses, Butcher Block and Purdue Cheese.

2:30 to 3:30 p.m. — Stop downtown at McCord Candies for a sweet treat and a tour of the candy making process in the third floor candy kitchen (pending availability). We recommend going in the Fall when they are making their world famous candy canes for the holiday season!

3:30 to 5:00 p.m. — Explore downtown shops to find your one-of-a-kind kitchen items such as cake testers, pie plates, vases and utensil holders and more! We recommend checking out Artists' Own and LE Originals for these items, but there are a variety of other art galleries and shops to browse downtown.

5:15 to 7:00 p.m. — Sit down for dinner at East End Grill. Devour steak, seafood, chicken & duck, salads and sandwiches at this downtown eatery.

7:10 to 8:30 p.m. — Enjoy a night cap at Lafayette Brewing Company or The Cellar Wine Bistro.
