ACKERMAN-ALLEN COURSE

The Ackerman-Allen Course, a Pete Dye design, is an 18-hole, parkland-style, championship golf course. Recently renovated in 2016, the charm of the former Ackerman Hills has been kept with this majestic redesign by Pete Dye, with the addition of all bent grass greens, fairways, and tees. Mature hardwoods line this rolling hills layout, which added acreage to the old back-9 holes, expanding the footprint of the course. With the addition of Ackerman-Allen Course, the Pete Dye Golf Trail now consists of 8 courses located throughout Indiana, including the Birk Boilermaker Golf Complex's other well-known gem, the Kampen Course!
