

Purdue Bug Bowl

Clegg Memorial Garden

Haan Museum Sculpture Garden

Free & Fun Spring Things To Do

LAFAYETTE WEST LAFAYETTE

- Stop by the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to explore our website at HomeOfPurdue.com or follow the link below.
- Go to the Clegg Memorial Garden and enjoy all the beautiful spring wild flowers.
- Plan a picnic at one of our 50+ parks in the county, including several with a riverfront view.
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Explore over 125 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Observe wildlife at the Ouatonen Preserve Overlook, a National Historic Landmark.
- Whistle when you go past the mural on the Art Museum of Greater Lafayette and then go inside and look at all the great art!
- Delight in Indiana's natural beauty along with over 25 sculptures created by notable Indiana artists at the Haan Museum Sculpture Garden.
- Swing by one of our libraries and find books to help you plan the perfect garden.
- Test your stomach by eating bugs at Purdue's Bug Bowl in mid-April or you can just watch.
- Enjoy the multi-age playground, bring a pole and try to catch a fish in the pond or walk the trails at Armstrong Park.

SCAN ME
homeofpurdue.com

Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette • 765-447-9999
homeofpurdue.com