

Lafayette - West Lafayette, Indiana

A sampling of Spring Free & Fun Activities!

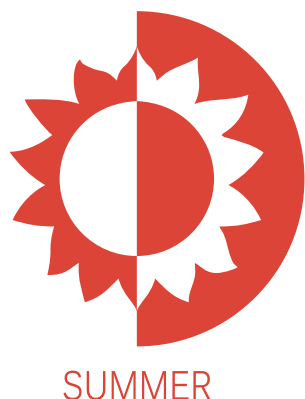

- Learn more about the area by stopping into the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to click through our website at HomeOfPurdue.com.
- Go to the Clegg Memorial Garden and enjoy all the beautiful spring wild flowers.
- Plan a picnic at one of our 50+ parks in the county, including several with a riverfront view.
- Delight in Indiana's natural beauty along with over 25 sculptures created by notable Indiana artists at the Haan Mansion Sculpture Garden.
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Explore over 115 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the spring events throughout the community!
- Observe wildlife at the Ouatonen Preserve Overlook, a National Historic Landmark.
- Whistle when you go past the mural on the Art Museum of Greater Lafayette and then go inside and look at all the great art!
- Swing by one of our libraries and find books to help you plan the perfect garden.
- Test your stomach by eating bugs at Purdue's Bug Bowl in mid-April or you can just watch.
- Take a Frisbee to Purdue University for a round of disc golf.
- Enjoy the multi-age playground, bring a pole and try to catch a fish in the pond or walk the trails at Armstrong Park.

Lafayette - West Lafayette, Indiana

A sampling of Summer Free & Fun Activities!

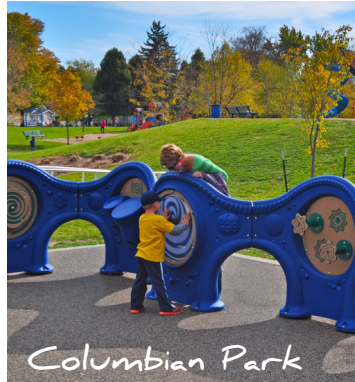

- Learn more about the area by stopping into the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to click through our website at HomeOfPurdue.com.
- Experience Mosey Down Main Street... this downtown, family friendly event is once a month, May through September, and offers live music and great entertainment.
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the summer events throughout the community!
- Grab a partner and hit the McCaw Park pickleball courts!
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Bring your lunch to the John T. Myers Pedestrian Bridge and watch people pass by.
- Tour the Tippecanoe County Courthouse.
- Enjoy the conversation, free sights and great smells at the Farmers' Markets every Saturday morning downtown Lafayette, Wednesday afternoon in West Lafayette and Thursday at Purdue from May through October.
- Discover the branches of your family tree at the Frank Arganbright Genealogy Center.
- Explore over 115 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Follow the tree trail around Purdue University and marvel at the beauty of the fountains and art.
- Take a walking tour through one of our historic neighborhoods. Visit tourdelafayette.com for additional locations and maps.
- Grab your canoe or kayak and head to the Bicentennial Nature Area or one of the other waterways in Tippecanoe County.

Lafayette - West Lafayette, Indiana

A sampling of Autumn Free & Fun Activities!

- Learn more about the area by stopping into the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to click through our website at HomeOfPurdue.com.
- Attend a free pre-game concert at Slayter Center, 90 minutes before a Purdue home football game.
- Take a picnic lunch to Tapawingo Park and enjoy sitting "on the banks of the Wabash."
- See fall color along the Wabash Heritage Trail while you observe wildlife along the river.
- Bike, hike, walk, jog or roller skate our scenic and plentiful, linking trails systems.
- Explore over 115 pieces of public art. A brochure is available both online and at the visitors center.
- Take advantage of the Farmers' Markets during their last month (October) of operation until next spring.
- Take a wagon ride through the pumpkin fields and apple trees at Wea Creek Orchard.
- Visit the Purdue Welcome Center, in Stewart Center at Purdue, and discover all the reasons we are "Purdue Proud" in our community.
- Drive through one of our historic neighborhoods and savor the interesting architecture. Visit tourdelafayette.com for additional info.
- Cheer on the Boilermakers at Purdue Homecoming events; Homecoming parade, pep rally, Mackey Madness and a family friendly celebration on the Purdue Mall.
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the autumn events throughout the community!

Lafayette - West Lafayette, Indiana

A sampling of Winter Free & Fun Activities!

WINTER

- Learn more about the area by stopping into the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to click through our website at HomeOfPurdue.com.
- Attend the annual lighted Christmas Parade on the first Saturday in December.
- Take a self-guided holiday tour through one of our nine historic neighborhoods. Enjoy the breathtaking luminaria lining Historic Ninth Street Hill during the holidays.
- Visit the Purdue Memorial Union to see one of the largest indoor trees in Indiana, decorated for the holidays.
- Head to Prophetstown State Park and discover the Circle of Stones, trails, birds and wildlife. The park is free during off-season.
- Walk or drive through the Living Nativity with 14 life-size outdoor scenes with live animals! Held at the Faith Church off of SR26.
- Take a walk through Chauncey Village and smell the vast culinary delights of different ethnic cuisines.
- Go sledding at Slayter Hill or Murdock Park. Build a snowman at any of our 50+ area parks.
- Visit the Purdue University Galleries to view a variety of art forms and exhibits.
- Attend a program at the Tippecanoe County Public Library. Or read the perfect cookbook for hot chocolate and holiday cookies.
- Enjoy 115+ snow covered pieces of public art. Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for suggestions.
- See the exhibits at the Dauch Alumni Center and discover all of the reasons we are "Purdue Proud."
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the winter events throughout the community!
- Take on a Lafayette-West Lafayette puzzle challenge: jigawplanet.com/HomeOfPurdue.

TWO GREAT CITIES, ONE GREAT UNIVERSITY.