

THREE GREAT DISTRICTS. ONE GREAT DESTINATION.

DOWNTOWN

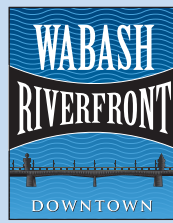

LAFAYETTE-WEST LAFAYETTE

Chauncey Village District

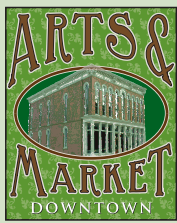

An area of West Lafayette, situated between the Purdue campus and the Riverfront district. The name Chauncey is from the original settlement in this area in 1866. In 1888, the town's name was changed to West Lafayette. This district caters to visitors, students and alumni with an emphasis on Purdue traditions and memorabilia, great night life, shopping, fun and college atmosphere.

Wabash Riverfront District

Spanning the river, this district covers an area between River Road in West Lafayette and 4th Street in Lafayette. The Riverfront hosts some of the area's largest events and includes many attractions including the John T. Myers Pedestrian Bridge, Riehle Plaza, Tapawingo Park, Wabash Landing and the Tippecanoe County Courthouse. Enjoy the many restaurants and coffee shops featuring an eclectic mix of flavor from around the world, and the public art on the Courthouse Square.

Arts & Market District

Encompasses 4th Street to 12th Street and South Street to North Street in Lafayette. This district offers quaint shops, museums and galleries in addition to theatre, live music venues, great restaurants and coffee shops. Also, don't miss the Lafayette Farmers Market, one of Indiana's oldest outdoor markets, operating for over 165 years, and runs early May through late October on Saturday mornings.

Downtown is a wonderful, vibrant and inviting place to discover. You'll find awesome local flavor restaurants, eclectic shops, a variety of entertainment options and much more! Spend time strolling along tree lined streets where you can enjoy public art and beautiful turn-of-the-century architecture.
