Fun Facts

* The first chairlift in the Eastern U.S. was built at Belknap Mountain, now called Gunstock.

* The Cannon Tramway, built in 1938, wasn't the first tram in America, but it was the first constructed to carry skiers to the top of ski trails.

* The Cannon Mountain Ski Patrol, the first professional patrol in the country, was hired in 1938.

* In the late 1940s an emigrant from Austria, Hubert von Pantz, sold plots of land and chalets at the base of Cannon Mountain. He called this village Mittersill.

* Sel Hannah, from Berlin, NH helped design trails all over the state in the 1940s. In 1947 he started a business, Sno-Engineering. He, his partners, and his wife, Paulie, designed and planned many ski areas all over the country. Ski area design and engineering is recognized as a profession today because of their work. Joan Hannah, Sel's daughter, an accomplished ski racer, currently lives in Franconia and helped pioneer the US alpine image of international skiing. She was elected to the US National Ski Hall of Fame in 1978.
