MUSEUMS ON THE RIVER

DISCOVER SCIENCE, HISTORY, HERITAGE & ART

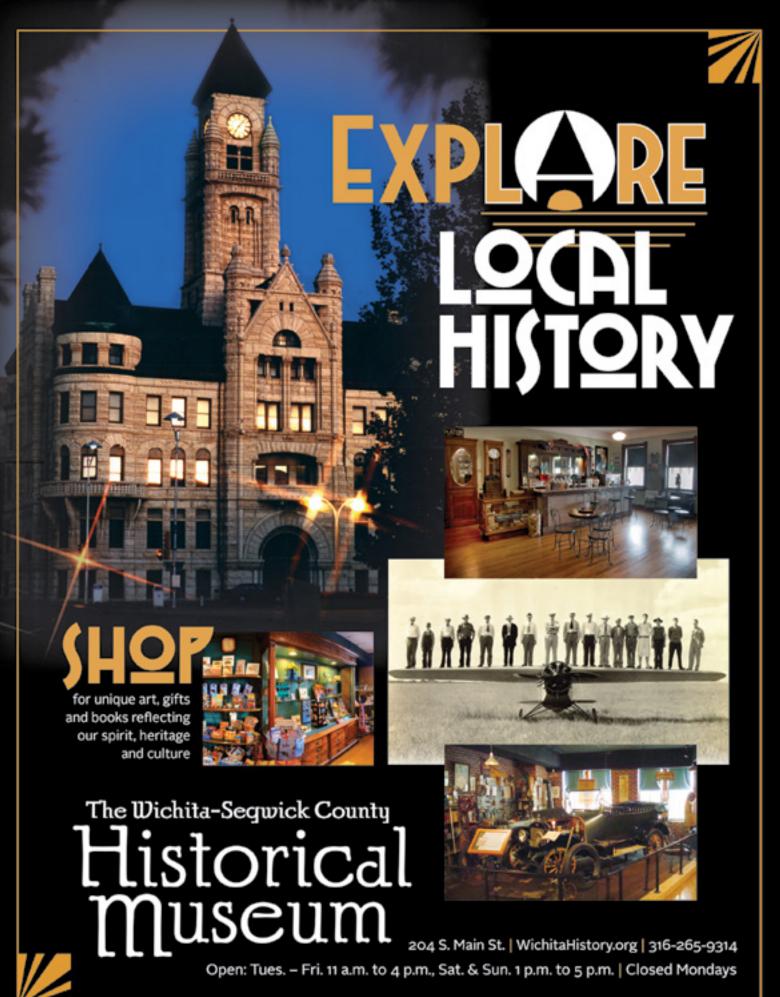

More than 50 years ago, Native American artist Blackbear Bosin gifted the City of Wichita the iconic Keeper of the Plains, a 44-foot-tall steel sculpture that welcomes visitors and locals.

Designed to pay tribute to the area's Indigenous people, the Keeper has been a source of inspiration, peace, unity and belonging since the 1970s.

The Keeper offers year-round recreation and appreciation with its nightly fire pot show, integrated running/biking paths and water sports opportunities on the Arkansas River. It is easily one of the most Instagrammable spots in the community.

WAYS TO EXPERIENCE THE KEEPER

RING OF FIRE

Majestic in any light, but most impressive during a 15-minute "Ring of Fire" at 9 p.m. (spring and summer), weather permitting.

CULTURAL CENTER

The Mid-America All-Indian Museum houses one of the largest Blackbear Bosin collections, a gallery of nations and a gift shop featuring modern artists' works.

PLAZA AREA

The sculpture is surrounded by Keeper of the Plains Plaza, which features exhibits depicting the Plains Indians' way of life. Accessible through the Mid-America All-Indian Museum during the day or via two bow-and-arrow-inspired cablestayed bridges that surround it.
