

This map of Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia, provides a comprehensive overview of the historic district. It features a grid of streets including Lafayette Street, Scotland Street, Prince George Street, North Henry Street, Nassau Street, Duke of Gloucester Street, Francis Street, South England Street, and Newport Avenue. Key landmarks and buildings are labeled, such as the Governor's Palace, the Capitol, the Williamsburg Inn & Colonial House Registration, and the Williamsburg Woodlands Conference Center. The map also identifies various shops, taverns, and public facilities. A red box in the upper right corner, labeled "Group Ticketing & Bus Parking", highlights a specific area near the Williamsburg Woodlands Conference Center. A blue dashed line, labeled "On & Off Bus Loading", traces a path through the district, indicating designated bus stops. The map includes a legend for symbols representing parking (P), restrooms, accessibility, and other facilities. A compass rose in the bottom right corner indicates the orientation, with "LOOKING NORTH" and a note that "Map is not to scale".
