Brand Health Study

David Seiferth, President, SMARInsights

COVID-19 Perceptions

Consumers are growing more comfortable with travel as the COVID-19 vaccine is being widely distributed and proving effective – and new cases are declining.

Vaccine Perceptions

- Around two-thirds of consumers plan to get the vaccine and feel it will be safe and effective
- And travel plans are tied to the vaccine for more than 4 in 10 consumers

Leisure Travel Readiness

Considering the COVID-19 pandemic, which of the following best describes how you feel about traveling for leisure soon?

- Travel readiness and pent-up demand is evidenced by the fact that only 1 in 5 consumers think it's too early to be thinking about leisure travel
- About half are still dreaming/ready to plan, but 1 in 5 are currently planning

COVID-19 Impact on Leisure Travel

- In late July/early August, 36% of consumers indicated that they had not taken a trip nor had plans to travel for the rest of the year
- As of mid-February, only 25% indicated taking no trips in 2020
- So, more ultimately took trips in 2020 than had taken/planned in the middle of the year

- Data were collected via an online survey so that consumers could review the actual advertising
- A total of 1,903 online surveys were completed between February 11 and 23, 2021
- The research was conducted among leisure travelers in proven and expansion markets; leisure travelers are those who normally take at least one leisure trip a year that involves an overnight stay or is at least 50 miles from home
- The overall results are weighted to be representative of market population
- It should be noted that year-over-year changes are reviewed using comparable proven markets to allow for a direct comparison (Cleveland and Columbus were not target markets in 2019, so no comparison is available)

2020 Advertising Communication Ratings

The 2020 advertising excels at communicating that Williamsburg is a good place for a family trip, a fun destination, a place with rich history, and a place that is open for tourism now.

2020 Advertising Impact Ratings

From an industry ad ratings benchmark standpoint, the 2020 advertising effectively generates interest in Williamsburg travel.

Ad Ratings Change (COVID Attributes)

The ad ratings for attributes relating directly to COVID-19 improved compared to summer likely due to more positive consumer sentiment.

"Ads Make Me Want to Visit" – Market Type

The advertising is working to generate interest in visiting in both market groups. The rating in the proven markets is just shy of the "excellent" threshold.

"Ads Make Me Want to Visit" – Target Audience

The young families demographic group had relatively high ad awareness. Here we see that they are also relatively receptive to the advertising from this evaluative ratings perspective. Reaching the most receptive audience foreshadows strong advertising impact on travel.

"Ads Make Me Want to Visit" – Personas

Ad Impact on Familiarity, Rating, and Intent

The 2020 advertising works to familiarize consumers with the Williamsburg leisure travel product, build overall perceptions of the destination, and generate intent to visit in the next year. The ads will continue to have an influence outside the scope of this research.

Paid partnership with visitwilliamsburg Colonial Williamsburg, VA

Christmas, Courtney and I spent three days exploring the history of Greater Williamsburg with @visitwilliamsburg.

We absolutely loved learning about the area's early colonial history - the good. the bad, and the uply, all of which resulted from the encounters of three unique cultures (Powhatan, Angolan, and English). When we were not nerding out in museums, we spent our time admiring restored or reconstructed colonial architecture and sampling the local food scene. I will be sharing more details in my stories over the next couple of days, and be sure to check out my blog post for all the beautifully_made What are some activities you plan on doing with your kids to celebrate Black History Month?

One of the main reasons why I decided to homeschool my children was because I wanted the opportunity to teach my children about black history. As an African American mother, it's so important that I show my children black leaders, heroes, and historians in a positive light. My family and I had the opportunity to @visitwilliamsburg and explore the history of Africans in Virginia. During my trip, my family and I were able to participate in 7 homeschool activities that focused on black history. Check out my blog post on www.visitwilliamsburg.com to read ashleyterk When the idea to go on a getaway to Williamsburg came about, the first thing I thought of was the field trip I went on in middle school and Williamsburg has proven itself to be the furthest thing from that middle school field trip, though. The food is absolutely amazing, the people are so sweet, the history of the area is super interesting, and the attractions/activities are endless! Well done @VisitWilliamsburg, you won me over and officially earned your spot on my list of favorite places to vacation! Here are some photos from our time in @VisitYorktown - a must-see while you're visiting!
