INSPIRING MEETINGS START WITH INSPIRING SETTINGS

With an award-winning, bustling riverfront, National Register Historic District and nearby island beaches, people are naturally drawn to Wilmington, N.C. Our mild climate and rich culture – including more than 200 restaurants, shops and attractions in the downtown area alone – offer something for everyone. Whether it's just for a meeting or event, or staying for a few days before or after, Wilmington is the kind of destination planners seek out for their meetings and events.

Specializing in small-and medium-size meetings, we offer a multitude of indoor and outdoor meeting and convention facilities and natural settings, as well as an exceptional range of attractions, personalized and professional service, and all the right elements for increasing your meeting attendance at this favorite meeting and vacation destination.

CONVENTION DISTRICT CONNECTED BY A SCENIC RIVERWALK

Wilmington is one of N.C.'s favorite vacation destinations and a natural to become your next favorite meetings destination.

Our multiuse Convention District is located riverfront and within Wilmington's downtown River District, all connected by a nearly two-mile scenic Riverwalk that makes it easy for attendees to get around. We cater to small businesses, associations, corporations, family reunions or somewhere in between. From state-of-the-art wireless exhibit halls and elegant ballrooms to the irresistible charm of a historic home with soul stirring porch views as a special event venue option, our variety of venues is unmatched and always appealing.

For something a little more traditional but still far from the ordinary convention center, the sleek, 107,000-square-foot Wilmington Convention Center is the largest convention center on N.C.'s coast. Located downtown, it offers sweeping riverfront views and plenty of natural light that helps bring the outdoors in. Adjacent to the convention center is the Port City Marina and Pier 33. Networking and socializing becomes a breeze when it takes place on or by the water.

Other downtown meeting facilities include the historic Coastline Conference and Event Center, which retains the charm of its red brick railroad depot days while offering modern amenities. Nearby, the Hilton Wilmington Riverside offers 20,000-square-feet of meeting space, plus an on-site Ruth's Chris Steak House. The new full-service Embassy Suites Wilmington Riverfront Hotel located adjacent to the Wilmington Convention Center provides convenient accommodations for visitors and events held at the convention center.

THE LARGEST CONVENTION CENTER ON NORTH CAROLINA'S COAST

The maritime-themed Wilmington Convention Center offers meeting capabilities up to 2,000 people and a variety of spaces. Its surroundings lead to a positive frame of mind and productivity with access to water, fresh air, and wellness and networking activities offered during breaks. Multiple nearby hotels all located within walking distance and connected by nearly two miles of Riverwalk along the Cape Fear River make it easy for attendees to get around.
