RESTAURANTS

After a long day shopping, satisfy your hunger at the many restaurants in or near The Woodlands Mall. If you need something quick and delicious, there are plenty of options like Bigotes Street Tacos for Tex-Mex on the go. For a fast-casual option, enjoy a burger and fries at Shake Shack. If you're in the mood for something a bit fancier, head to North Italia for scratch-made pasta or Spanish Flowers for authentic Mexican cuisine. Enjoy a craft beer at Yard House or savor a delicious dinner at The Capital Grille.

FOR THE KIDS

Located near the food court inside The Woodlands Mall, The Carousel is a fun and convenient attraction for kids of all ages. Pick your favorite animal — giraffe, rabbit, lion, frog, or racehorse — and snap a photo on this classic carnival attraction.

Looking to unwind after a long day of shopping? Check out Movies on the Lawn for a relaxing outdoor theater experience. With every genre from action-adventures to rom-coms, timeless classics, or new releases, Movies on the Lawn is a great outing for the whole family.

CINEMARK

Get fully immersed in a movie at Cinemark 17 and XD at The Woodlands Mall. The THX-Certified XD auditoriums with surround sound, wall-to-wall screens, and the ability to project 35 trillion colors will make you feel like you're a part of the action.

INSIDER TIP

Need a little more adventure? Hop in a Swan Boat and pedal your way along The Waterway! Starting at the Mall Ring Turning Basin, you can venture out to the edge of Lake Robbins and back all at your own speed. Up to four guests can enjoy a ride together at a time. Tickets are only $15 for 30 minutes, plus $5 for additional 30-minute increments. Available on Saturdays and Sundays only from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m.

INSIDER TIPS

- 1 | Dine before the show. Waterway Square and Market Street offer a wide selection of restaurants within walking distance of The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion.
- 2 | Find free parking. Free parking is available in the Yellow, Orange, Green, Blue, and White Lots. Accessible parking is also free on a first-come, first-served basis in the Gold Lot.
- 3 | Check the bag policy. Be sure to review The Pavilion's bag and purse policy before arrival. If you'd rather not leave valuables in your car, the nearby Hyatt Centric The Woodlands offers a bag check for a small fee.
- 4 | Bring a card, not cash. The Pavilion is a cashless venue. All transactions — including box office sales, concessions, and parking — require card payment.
- 5 | Beat the heat in The Lounge. This air-conditioned bar opens one hour before the gates at most Live Nation events and stays open an hour after the show.

LASTING IMPACT

Since its opening in 1990, The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion has become a cornerstone of The Woodlands. Its namesake, a devoted advocate for the arts, dreamed of making them accessible to all. The motto "Rock pays for Bach" captures this vision, with a portion of every LiveNation ticket sale funding performing arts shows, educational initiatives, and community events like The Children's Festival.

annual events

ANNUAL EVENTS

FROM EXHILARATING, LIGHT-UP-THE-SKY SUMMER FESTIVALS TO COZY HOLIDAY PARTIES, THERE ARE COUNTLESS WAYS TO ENJOY YOUR TRIP TO THE WOODLANDS.

SPRING

Recognized as one of the best fine arts festivals in the country, The Woodlands Waterway Arts Festival features original works by over 200 artists, live music, local food, and other family-friendly activities. Craving a high-energy environment? Catch a live show during the free concert series all season long. If you're a sports enthusiast, witness the world's top athletes compete in the Memorial Hermann IRONMAN Texas, Insperity Invitational, or The Chevron Championship held in The Woodlands each April.

SUMMER

Honor U.S. military servicemen and women with the annual Memorial Day Celebration at Town Green Park. An evening of live music, care package donations, children's activities, and a vibrant fireworks display spells fun for the whole family! The Woodlands is a foodie's paradise during Wine & Food Week with sommelier-driven tastings and amazing performance art shows held annually in June. Make Independence Day one to remember with the annual Red, Hot & Blue Festival, featuring a day full of events and firework extravaganzas all over town.

FALL

Between live music and a brilliant firework show, The Woodlands' annual Labor Day Celebration is sure to please. There will even be pie-eating contests for kids and adults! Wine & Food Week continues in October with Wine Walk at Market Street. This fan-favorite event includes fine fare from local restaurants as well as artisan selections from all over the world. Don't forget to drop by The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion for Hocus Pocus Pops, a special Halloween performance by the Houston Symphony. Kids can even come in costume!

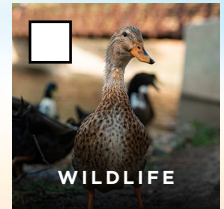

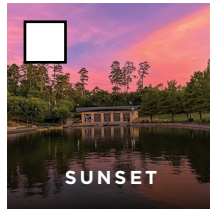

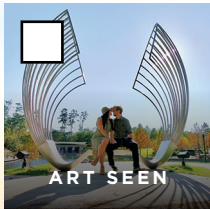

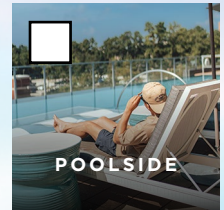

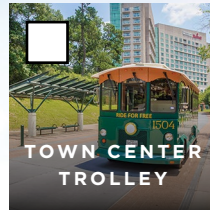

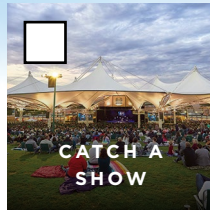

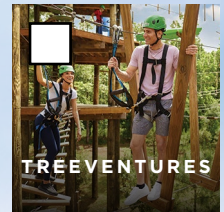

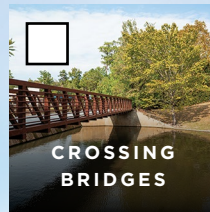

WINTER

Experience the magic of the holidays with a stroll through Waterway Lights, where the trees and pathways along The Woodlands Waterway sparkle with dazzling, illuminated displays. Then lace up your skates at The Woodlands Ice Rink — an indoor winter wonderland perfect for festive fun and making holiday memories. For even more seasonal cheer, don't miss the twinkling beauty of Market Street in Lights and the beloved Lighting of the Doves celebration.
