

Tour YORK[®]

Buses & Groups have it made hereSM

With rich history, delicious farm-to-table food, exciting attractions, and a craft beverage scene rivaling major cities, York County offers one of the Mid-Atlantic's most diverse and dynamic destinations. You'll be surprised at all the ways you, and your guests, can have it made here.

When you bring a bus to York County, you'll be at the center of it all. Let us serve as your hub while you visit all the area has to offer. Conveniently located to nearby Lancaster, Hershey, Gettysburg, and Baltimore, your guests will only need to unpack once at our comfortable and affordable accommodations before exploring.

YorkPA.org/group-tours

Tailored Experiences for Your Interests

- Explore our Makers' Spirit
- Farm to Table Food
- Steam into Fun
- African American History
- Casino Tours
- Mystery Tour Itineraries
- Exciting Attractions
- Sensational Shopping
- Fascinating History
- The Good Libations Trails[®]
- Cultural Gems

Plus more customizable ideas!

Have It Made Here!

For more than 20 years, Explore York has been celebrating the talented makers in our county who bring an unmatched authenticity to our area.

This year, we're back to do it again from June 12-18, 2023!

This event highlights the diverse range of products, services, and experiences created right here in York County.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HAVING YOUR ITINERARY MADE HERE

Explore our Makers' Spirit

The makers' spirit is alive and well in York County. Visitors can see their favorite products made right before their eyes in York County.

- Sunrise Soap Company
- The Watchmaker's Daughter
- York Barbell Company
- Bluett Bros. Violins
- Nature's Platter

The Good Libations Trails®

The craft beverage scene in York County is booming. Taste your way through unique wine varieties, hand-crafted brews and sodas, and spirits that pay homage to their historic origins.

- Old Republic Distillery
- Adams County Winery
- Wyndridge Farm
- Mount Hope Winery

Photo credit: Steam Into History - John Gensor

Steam into Fun

For the train-obsessed out there, York is the perfect destination. Check the schedules of our historic railroads for a trip that will be both exciting and educational.

- Stewartstown Railroad Company
- Northern Central Railway of York
- Ma & Pa Railroad Heritage Village

Exciting Attractions

York County and the surrounding area has an eclectic mix of attractions and experiences that will guarantee you and your guests have great memories made here.

- York Revolution Professional Baseball
- Turkey Hill Experience
- The Pride of the Susquehanna Riverboat
- Roundtop Mountain Resort
- York State Fair

Sensational Shopping

From unique antiques to farm fresh food to delicious snacks, shopping in York County is an experience all its own.

- Christmas Tree Hill – In The Mansion
- Morningstar Marketplace
- Stauffer's Cookie Outlet
- The Markets at Shrewsbury

Farm to Table Food

From delicious farm-to-table dining in the picturesque countryside to bakeries teeming with tasty treats, creative cuisine abounds in York County.

- Brown's Orchards & Farm Markets
- Central Market House
- Wyndridge Farm
- Flinchbaugh's Orchard & Farm Market

Fascinating History

The Continental Congress adopted the Articles of Confederation, our country's first constitution, in York in 1777. Tour a tavern, colonial courthouse and see our historical statues.

- York County History Center – Agricultural & Industrial Museum
- Goodridge Freedom Center & Underground Railroad Museum
- National Watch & Clock Museum

A Cultural Gem

Historic architecture, public art and murals tell the story of York County and make even an afternoon walk an experience to remember. Engaging museums, thrilling stage performances, and moving musicals make any bus trip complete.

- Appell Center for the Performing Arts
- Eichelberger Performing Arts Center
- Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre

Vaughn Crouse | Group Tour Sales Associate

717-852-9675 ext. 107

1-888-858-YORK · Fax: 717-854-5095

Vaughn@YorkPA.org

YorkPA.org/group-tours

Explore
YORK
yorkpa.org
have it made here™