Welcome!

Welcome to York County, Pennsylvania, where your next getaway awaits! With exhilarating outdoor adventures, authentic historical places, and a vibrant mix of arts and culture, there's plenty to explore.

PAST TO Present

» With re-enactments, historic sites, thousands of artifacts, and rare archives, the museums in York City and across the county chronicle the nation's past, taking you back to colonial times, the Industrial Revolution, and the Civil War.

DINE & Drink

» Blending farm-fresh and locally-sourced ingredients with a side of history and artistry, York County offers a creative culinary experience.

» Visit family-owned vineyards, historic breweries, and Prohibition-era distilleries on the Good Libations Trails®.

» Sip & sample through the region aptly dubbed the "Snack Food Capital of the World!"

FRESH AIR & Family Fun

» Spend some quality time with your family enjoying the relaxed pace our charming countryside offers. Try picking your own fruit, reserve a historic train or boat ride, or take an ice-cream tour where you'll meet the mooing makers! There's also plenty to do inside when the weather throws you a curveball.

ARTS & Culture

» York County is a hot bed of cultural expression. Local productions and national touring acts are both a common occurrence at the many theatrical venues in the area. Support local artists at galleries or get hands on with a class and express your artistic side!

CUSTOM Experience

» Have your adventure made here with a custom itinerary specifically for your group!

THE GREAT Outdoors

» Hike, bike, stroll, and sail – with more than 4,500 acres of public park land to explore, York County is every outdoor lover's dream. You'll also find ziplining, tubing, horseback riding, rail bikes, and more!
