

Welcome to York County, Pennsylvania, where your next getaway awaits! With exhilarating outdoor adventures, authentic historical places, and a vibrant mix of arts and culture, there's plenty to explore.

PAST TO Present

» With re-enactments, historic sites, thousands of artifacts, and rare archives, the museums in York City and across the county chronicle the nation's past, taking you back to colonial times, the Industrial Revolution, and the Civil War.

DINE & Drink

» Blending farm-fresh and locally-sourced ingredients with a side of history and artistry, York County offers a creative culinary experience.

» Visit family-owned vineyards, historic breweries, and Prohibition-era distilleries on the Good Libations Trails®.

» Sip & sample through the region aptly dubbed the "Snack Food Capital of the World!"

FRESH AIR & Family Fun

» Spend some quality time with your family enjoying the relaxed pace our charming countryside offers. Try picking your own fruit, reserve a historic train or boat ride, or take an ice cream tour where you'll meet the mooring makers! There's also plenty to do inside when the weather throws you a curveball.

ARTS & Culture

» York County is a hotbed of cultural expression. Local productions and national touring acts are both a common occurrence at the many theatrical venues in the area. Support local artists at galleries or get hands-on with a class and express your artistic side!

CUSTOM Experience

» Have your adventure made here with a custom itinerary specifically for your group!

THE GREAT Outdoors

» Hike, bike, stroll, and sail – with more than 4,500 acres of public parkland to explore, York County is every outdoor lover's dream. You'll also find ziplining, tubing, horseback riding, rail bikes, and more!

Tour YORK, PA

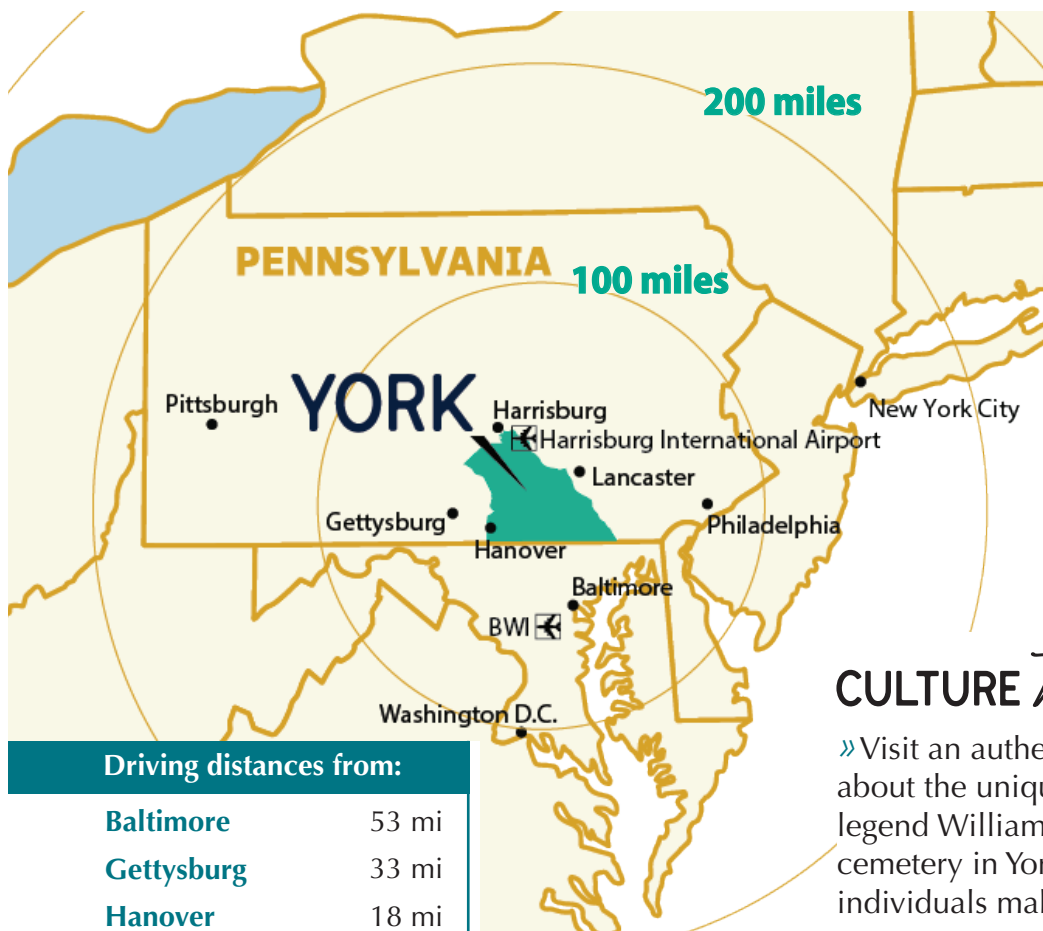

Have it made here!

ON THE Horizon

» Opening of the York County History Center's new location: Dubbed the "Steam Plant Project," this $28 million project will offer compelling programs and exhibits, inviting guests to explore the history, people, and culture of our county, state, and nation.

» The Crispus Attucks History and Culture Center: The 19,450-square-foot award-winning facility, set to open in January 2025 with a construction budget of $12.5 million, will honor, celebrate, preserve, and educate the living history and traditions of African Americans within York County and beyond.

Comfortable Hotels | Convenient Location

BOOK TODAY!

$79* Competitive Room Rates

*Rate based on availability.

CULTURE Made Here

» Visit an authenticated Underground Railroad site, learn about the unique and inspiring life of entrepreneurial legend William C. Goodridge, visit the oldest Black cemetery in York, Pennsylvania, and meet inspiring individuals making history.

Driving distances from:

Baltimore	53 mi
Gettysburg	33 mi
Hanover	18 mi
Harrisburg	26 mi
Lancaster	28 mi
New York City	186 mi
Niagara Falls	328 mi
Philadelphia	102 mi
Pittsburgh	222 mi
Washington, D.C.	93 mi

LEARN More

RASHEEDA MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF SALES

717-852-9675 ext. 114
Rasheeda@YorkPA.org

/ExploreYorkPA

