

Explore
YORK®

YorkPA.org

Set sail or ride the rails!

Set sail on the Susquehanna aboard the fabulous mahogany-planked "Chief Uncas." An authentic electric yacht commissioned for the Anheuser-Busch beer magnate Adolphus Busch in 1912.

York County is also home to three historic railroads including the Northern Central Railway of York, where visitors can watch history come to life and ride along the same route that carried Abraham Lincoln from our Nation's capital to deliver the Gettysburg Address or enjoy libations in style in an authentic mid-century Pullman-style passenger car complete with a bar!

history

York County, PA, is a treasure trove of history, taking you on a captivating journey from Native American roots to the Industrial Revolution and beyond. The region was once home to the Susquehannock tribe, whose history still echoes through the area. As Colonial settlers arrived, York became a key player in America's early history. Walk in the footsteps of our nation's founders where the Articles of Confederation were drafted.

Visit the new York County History Center, offering dynamic exhibits that bring stories to life. York County is home to a variety of museums and historic sites, including the Civil War Trails, Agricultural and Industrial Museum, Indian Steps Museum, William C. Goodridge Freedom Center, Dill's Tavern, and many more.

From Native American roots to the industrial boom, York County brings America's past to life.

Enjoy cocktails and an amazing view of historic downtown York from the Graham Rooftop Lounge at the elegant Yorktowne Hotel. Visitors also love the delicious dining options onsite and nearby.

In York County, PA, agritourism is more than picking perfect pumpkins –it's also about having fun, hands-on learning, and harvesting memories.

Year-round outdoor adventures abound. With more than 4,500 acres of public parkland, four State Parks, the 27-mile Heritage Rail Trail and 201-mile Mason Dixon Trail as well as the majestic Susquehanna River, you can hike, bike, paddle, or float your way through the area.

York County is a vibrant hub of art and culture, where visitors can discover exciting surprises around every corner—from the colorful displays at Mural Park to unforgettable local experiences that celebrate creativity and community.

PA | THE GREAT AMERICAN GETAWAY

Come celebrate America's 250th in Pennsylvania—where the story of our nation began—and experience it firsthand in York County, a place rich in Revolutionary history and full of hometown spirit.

Learn More

ANDREA RYAN
Senior Marketing Manager
Explore York

Andrea@YorkPA.org
YorkPA.org

Explore YORK

PA | THE GREAT AMERICAN GETAWAY

