

CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19) UPDATE 5/21/2020

Dear Explore York Family,

As you all know, tomorrow York County will enter the Yellow Phase of the re-opening plan in Pennsylvania. This is an exciting step forward that I know we have all been wanting. It is imperative that as we move through the re-opening process, we keep the safety and health of our employees and visitors as our top priority.

The Pennsylvania Restaurant and Lodging Association has put out some great resources throughout this strange time, and re-opening is no different. The PRLA resources page has information, pre-made signs about mask usage, contactless payment options, and much more for you to take advantage of. We have updated our Covid-19 Resources page to include this information. Non-hospitality industry businesses, including our retail partners, can find this information helpful, and I encourage you to take a look.

As we enter Yellow Phase, the Explore York staff will continue to work remotely and are still available to assist our partners and stakeholders.

See you soon,

Laura Gurreri

President, Explore York

COVID-19 PHASED REOPENING IN PA

COUNTIES MOVING FROM RED TO YELLOW ON MAY 22:

Yellow Phase Re-Opening

The Yellow Phase of re-opening is especially crucial for our retail partners, and we would like to make sure we are spreading your new operating information to potential customers. If you are re-opening your retail locations, please contact us so we can help update your listings on the website and include you in our social media promotions including an upcoming blog post.
