Meet BOSTON

Heritage Redefined

WELCOME TO BOSTON

Welcome to Boston, where storied heritage and contemporary sophistication converge in a destination defined by an uncompromising spirit of independence. In this cradle of American history, iconic cobblestone streets meet world-class hospitals, renowned universities, Michelin-recognized restaurants, and cultural experiences that unfold in every season. From elegant boutiques and stately Victorian brownstones along Newbury Street to five-star stays in timeless neighborhoods, Boston invites you to savor its refined yet spirited essence.

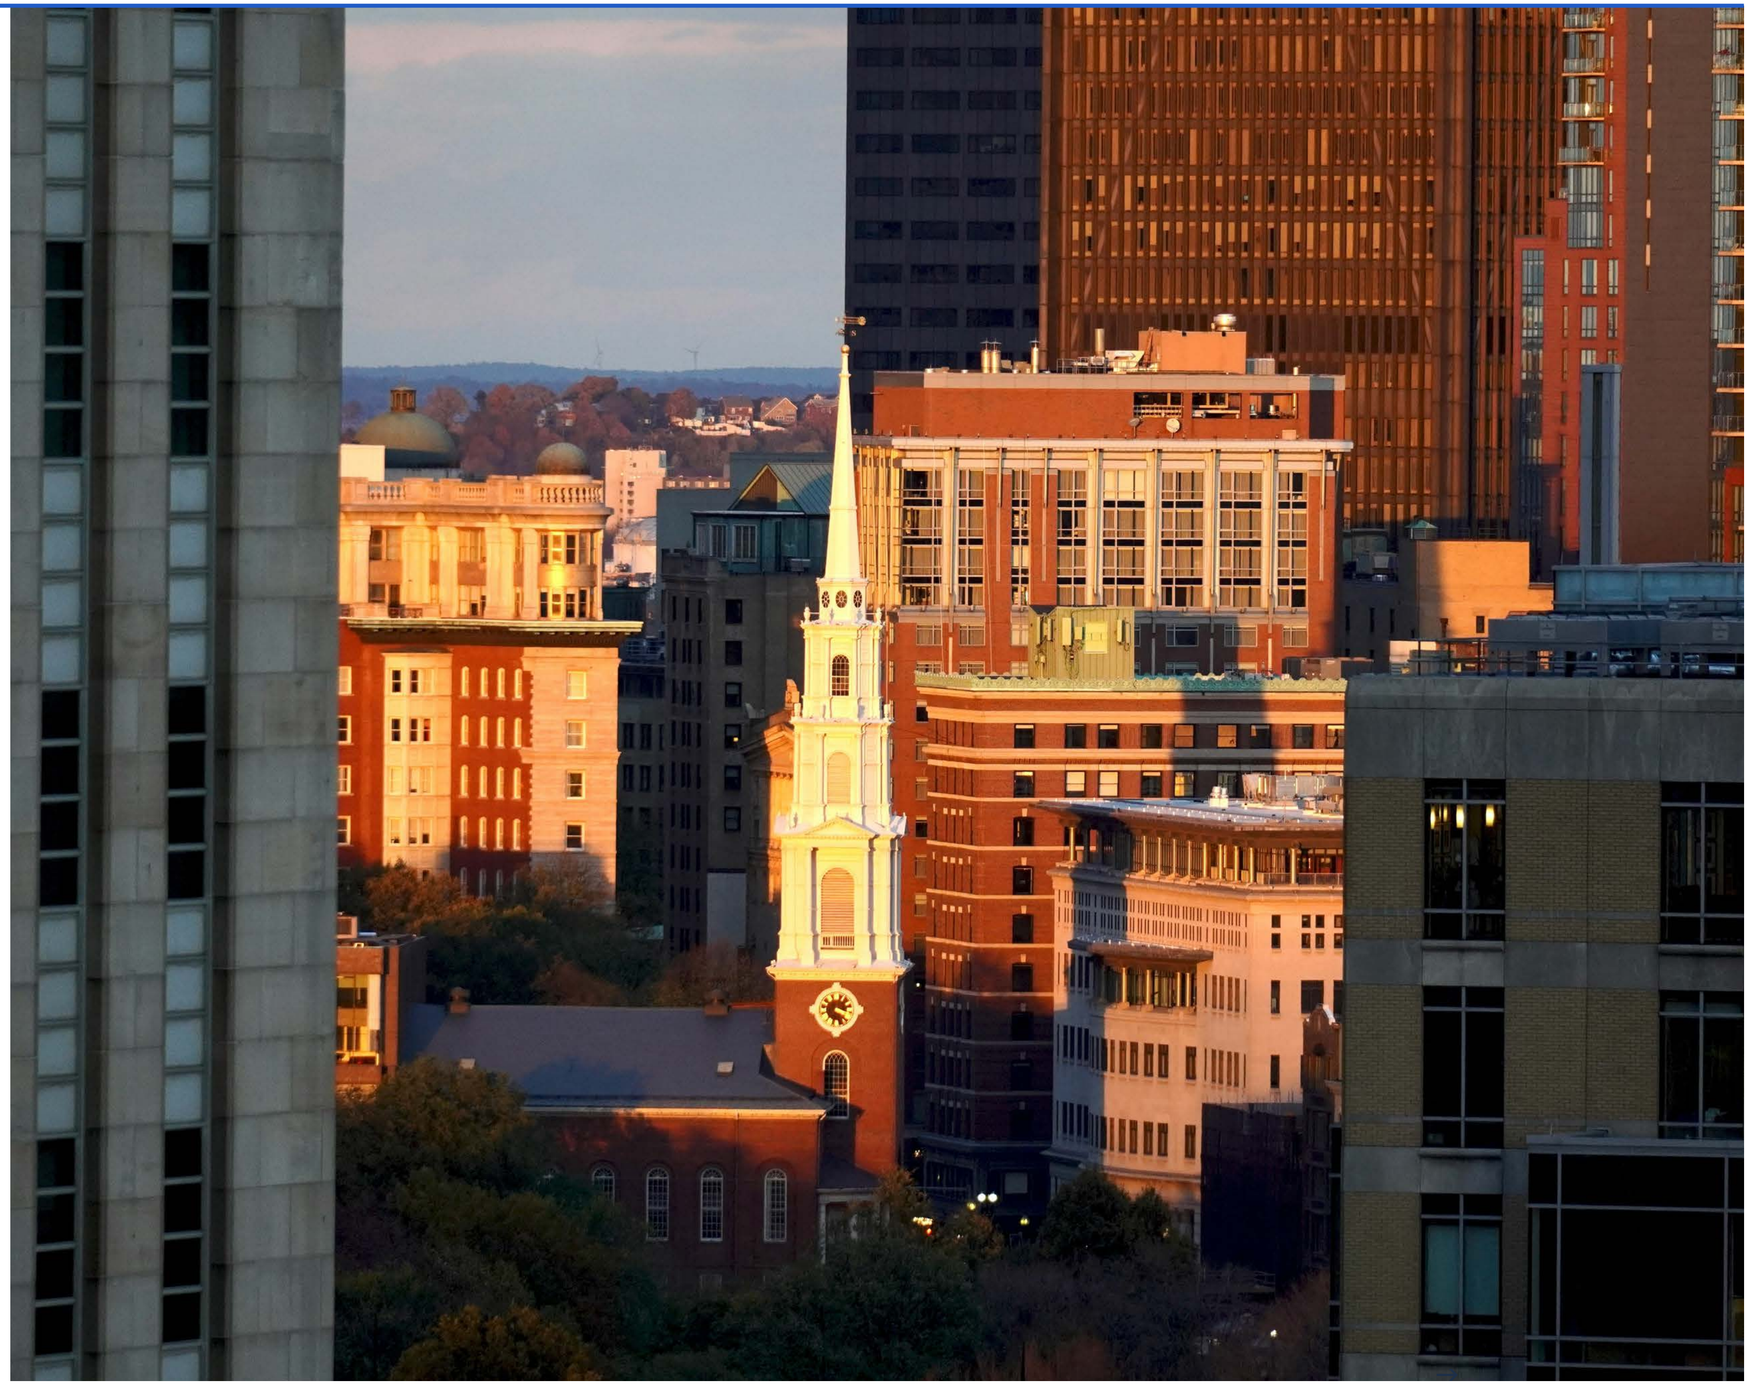

Immerse yourself in a city that celebrates tradition with modern flair—a crucible of creativity where culinary artistry, breathtaking waterfronts, and unforgettable events set the stage for extraordinary moments. Whether indulging in haute couture shopping, exploring cutting-edge exhibits, or unwinding in exquisite accommodations, Boston welcomes discerning travelers to discover a destination rich in character, culture, and charm.

A GLOBAL HUB OF INNOVATION, LEARNING, AND WELL-BEING

Beyond its cultural riches, Boston is a hub for learning and discovery. College visits are a highlight, with Harvard, MIT, Boston College, Tufts, Boston University, and Northeastern shaping the city's intellectual energy. Academic tradition here blends seamlessly with innovation and youthful vitality.

Boston is equally renowned for world-class medical care that draws patients from around the globe. Institutions such as Dana-Farber Cancer Institute Mass General Brigham, Boston Children's Hospital, and Tufts Medical Center anchor a healthcare ecosystem known for groundbreaking research and compassionate care. This leadership in medicine reinforces the city's role at the forefront of science and well-being.

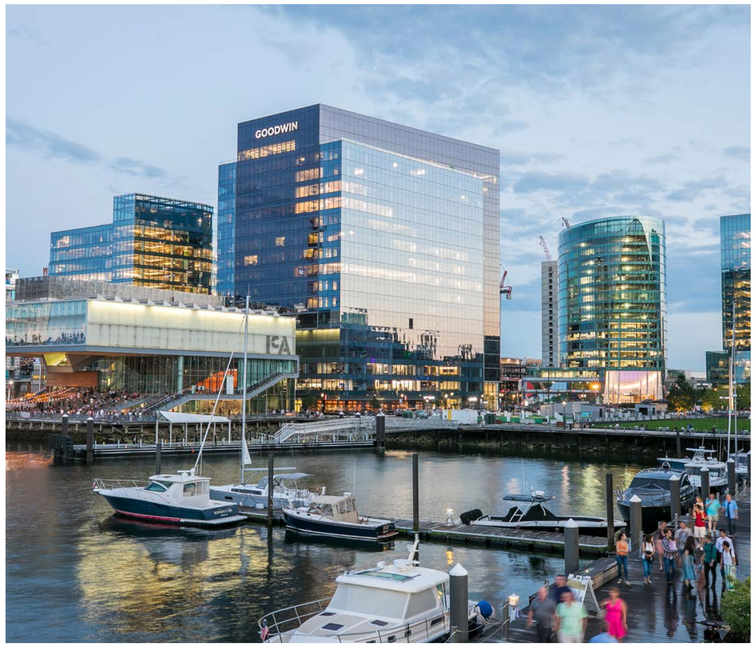

Connectivity makes Boston effortlessly accessible for both business and leisure travelers. Top domestic airline routes into and out of Logan International Airport include New York, Chicago, Washington, DC, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, while leading international routes link Boston with London, Paris, Amsterdam, Dublin, and Frankfurt. Together, these routes connect Boston's historic heart to the world beyond.

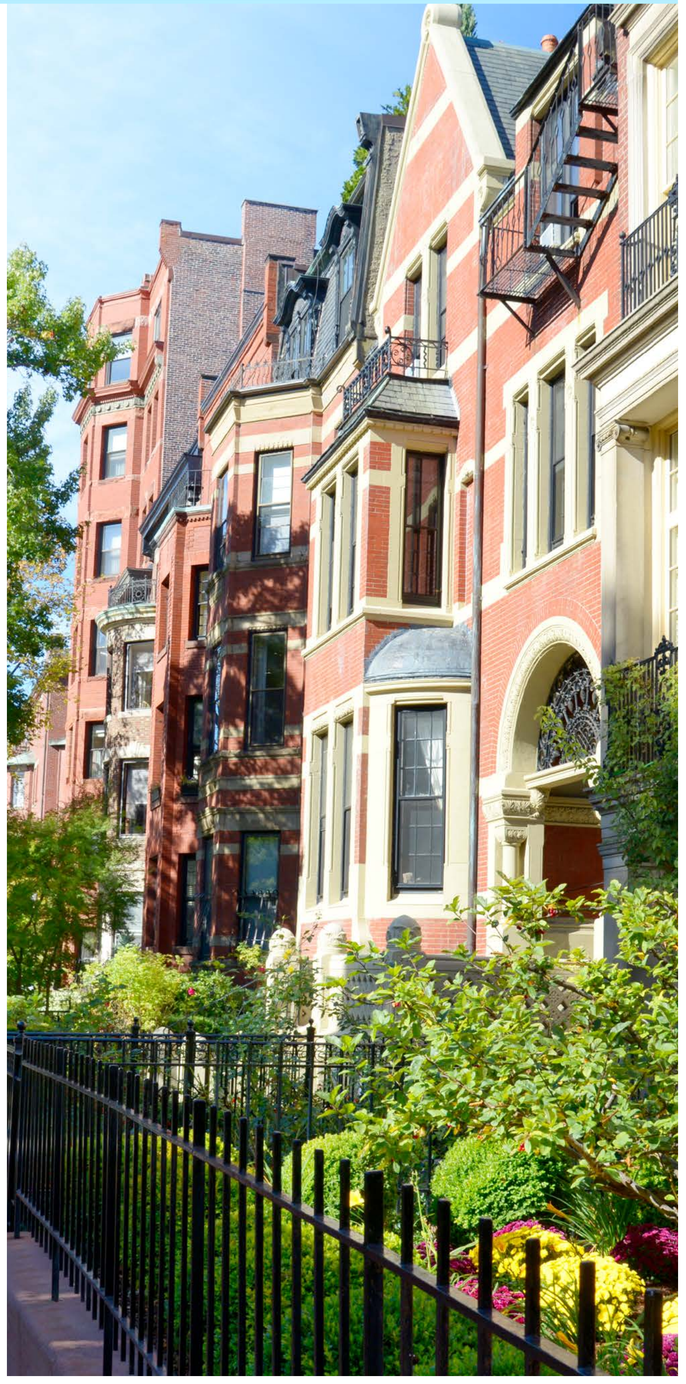

FROM HISTORIC STREETS TO MODERN FLAIR

The 23 distinctive and diverse neighborhoods of Boston offer an intriguing blend of history, culture, and contemporary elegance, making each neighborhood a rewarding experience in its own right. The quintessential neighborhoods at the city's core include Beacon Hill, which captivates with its iconic gaslit streets and historic brick row houses, and Back Bay, which exudes refinement through its grand architecture and upscale shops. The Seaport District buzzes with innovative dining and chic waterfront vibes. The Theater District and Chinatown enchant with vibrant culture and exquisite cuisine, while just across the river, Cambridge blends academic prestige with stylish cafés, boutique shopping, and a spirited, innovative atmosphere.

BEACON HILL

Beacon Hill exudes historic charm with its narrow, gaslit streets, Federalist Era architecture, and elaborate ironwork. Discover one of Boston's most enchanting and cultured neighborhoods by visiting its boutique shops and cozy cafés and discovering its hidden courtyards—all awash in a singular sense of intimacy and timeless style.

BACK BAY

Back Bay radiates timeless grace with its tree-lined avenues, iconic brownstones, and Victorian facades. From Newbury Street's upscale shopping and celebrated galleries to the peaceful paths of the Charles River Esplanade, the area embodies a seamless balance of greenery and urban refinement.

SEAPORT DISTRICT

The fastest-growing and newest neighborhood in Boston, the Seaport District pulses with modern vitality with its sleek waterfront architecture, innovative dining, and vibrant nightlife. Art galleries, luxury hotels, and scenic harbor views create a dynamic, upscale atmosphere, making it Boston's premier destination for contemporary urban living and stylish design.

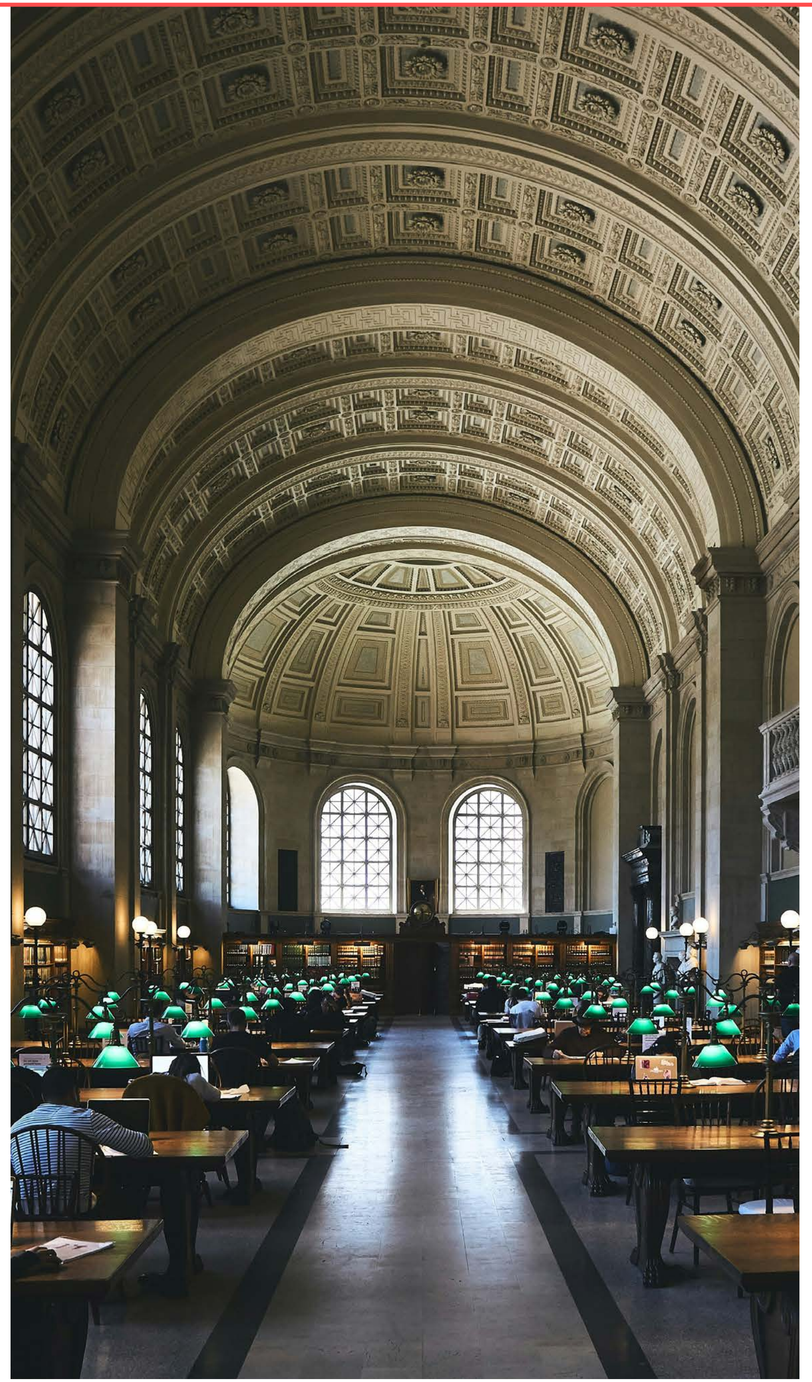

THEATER DISTRICT AND CHINATOWN

Boston's Theater District and Chinatown offer a vibrant cultural tapestry. Historic theaters host world-class performances, while Chinatown entices with bustling streets lined with authentic eateries—together creating an energetic, cosmopolitan hub where entertainment, flavor, and heritage seamlessly converge.

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge blends intellectual prestige with a dynamic cultural scene. World-renowned universities, eclectic cafés, boutique shops, and a lively arts scene create an inspiring, energetic atmosphere, giving this multifaceted city just across the Charles River from Boston its own feel and character.

This bespoke itinerary combines private tours, exclusive experiences, fine dining, and curated shopping, offering a seamless blend of cultural immersion, wellness, and stylish pursuits. From historic streets to waterfront vistas, every moment is tailored for indulgence and exploration.

DAY ONE

Art, History, and Fine Dining

MORNING:

Private Museum of Fine Arts Tour: Begin with a private docent-led tour through the museum's highlights or its celebrated Impressionist collection.

Luxury Transport: Enjoy seamless transfers throughout the day with a private black car chauffeur service.

Brunch at Contessa at The Newbury Boston Hotel: Dine amid a spectacular setting overlooking the Public Garden in this glass-enclosed rooftop restaurant, where Italian coastal chic meets Boston elegance.

AFTERNOON:

Private Beacon Hill Stroll with a Historian: Explore cobblestone streets, antique shops, and historic homes with a local historian or architecture expert.

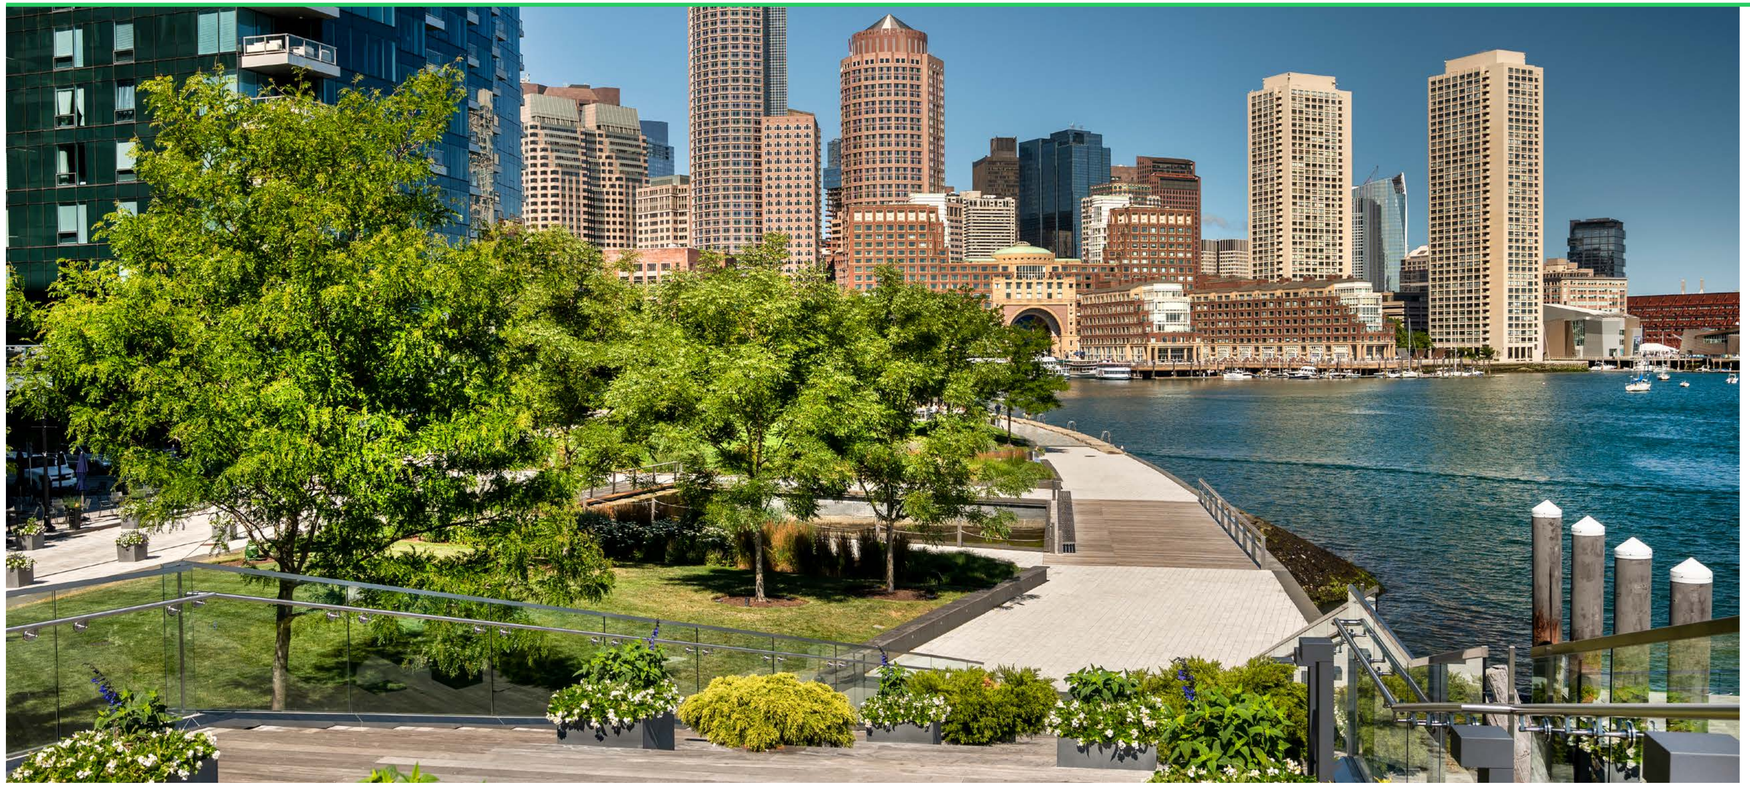

Personal Shopping Experience: Elevate your Boston visit with a bespoke shopping itinerary encompassing the city's most exclusive boutiques and designer stores, accompanied by a personal shopper and stylist.

EVENING:

Dinner at O Ya
Indulge in O Ya's famed 20-course omakase—an intimate, immersive culinary journey for true connoisseurs—which blends masterful sushi artistry, exceptional ingredients, and meticulous presentation.

Cocktails at Bistro du Midi: Enjoy a drink in the vibrant street-level bistro, reminiscent of the classic, casual bistros of France.

Optional Nightcap at Blind Duck: Ascend to a hidden speakeasy in the Back Bay where a plush ambiance, skyline vistas, and a seasonal menu of inventive cocktails combine to serve up a lavish, unforgettable evening.

DAY TWO

Seaside Sophistication and Wellness

MORNING:

Boutique Shopping on Newbury Street: Enjoy a leisurely stroll down Newbury Street, stopping at curated spots such as local perfumeries or art galleries for unique keepsakes, or indulge in a private styling session at Chanel, Tiffany, Cartier, or one of Boston's hidden couture ateliers.

Private Yachting on Boston Harbor: Board a private yacht charter for a half-day cruise through Boston Harbor and the Harbor Islands aboard a Barton & Gray Mariners Club vessel. Enjoy mimosas and a gourmet brunch on board.

Wellness Option: If you prefer to stay on land, enjoy a personalized spa experience at The Spa at the Mandarin Oriental, including a signature massage and aromatherapy ritual.

AFTERNOON:

Lunch at Row 34 (Fort Point): Savor a sublime seafood lunch at this upscale modern seafood destination featuring caviar service, a raw bar, and local oysters paired with Champagne.

Art and Design Tour: Explore the Institute of Contemporary Art with a private curator, taking in its stunning waterfront design and dynamic rotating exhibits.

EVENING:

Sunset Champagne at Boston's Highest Rooftop Bar: Raise a glass at Stratus atop the Prudential Center, soaking in breathtaking skyline and harbor vistas.

Dinner at Mistral (South End): Indulge in exquisite French-Mediterranean fare, with flawless service and an elegant atmosphere elevating your dining experience.

Optional Nightcap at Temple Records: Equal parts cocktail den and listening lounge—a magical hideaway where audiophiles and cocktail aficionados find common ground amid the warmth of vinyl and an unforgettable soundtrack.

DAY THREE

Academia, Heritage, and Culinary Indulgence

MORNING:

Private Harvard or MIT Tour: Explore these two world-class Cambridge institutions in the company of a personal academic guide or university historian, being sure to make a coffee stop at Tatte Bakery & Café, a beloved local gem.

Riverside Stroll: Awaken your senses with a serene morning stroll along Boston's Charles River Esplanade. Watch the sailboats gracefully glide by as the city awakens, then make your way across the river via the Longfellow Bridge footpath into Cambridge.

AFTERNOON:

Lunch at Harvest (Harvard Square): Savor upscale, seasonally inspired New England cuisine in a serene garden setting.

The Bohemian Charm of Harvard Square: Wander through its distinctive bookstores, boutiques, and artisan jewelers.

Private Tour at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum: Enjoy a private tour led by a docent through this Venetian-style palazzo, a hidden sanctuary of art and romance, and end with a conversation over espresso or Champagne in the enchanting courtyard.

EVENING:

Dinner at Grill 23 & Bar (Back Bay): Immerse yourself in a classic Boston steak house experience, transformed by indulgent caviar service, premium wines, and a refined atmosphere.

Optional Nightcap: Savor a bespoke cocktail tasting at The Fed, or experience live jazz and the timeless allure of The Beehive from a private table.
