Every State's Best November Events in 2024

North Carolina

34/51

The summer vibes will still be strong during the Cape Fear Kite Festival on November 1-3—when all in attendance will have the chance to see creative and colorful kites flying over the sand—and in Beaufort at Beaufort Wine & Food's Oyster Roast (November 2), which will showcase great oysters and wine on the waterfront. The start of November is also the time for Whiteville's Pecan Harvest Festival (November 2-3), featuring plenty of tasty pecan-filled treats, a parade, live music, and a car show, and in Cary, the always-popular North Carolina Chinese Lantern Festival lights up for the season on November 16. Last but not least, head back to Beaufort for the Pirate Invasion (November 22-24), a fun event that sees the town turned into a lively pirate town.
