

📷 20 Astro-Tourism Experiences Perfect for Fall

DESTINATION & TOURISM | LACEY PFALZ | SEPTEMBER 09, 2022

16/21

The night sky above the Cape Lookout Lighthouse. (photo via The Crystal Coast)

Cape Lookout National Seashore, Crystal Coast, North Carolina

Cape Lookout National Seashore on the Crystal Coast of North Carolina has just been designated a new International Dark Sky Park! It's part of one of the only remaining natural barrier island chains in the world, and is only accessible by boat. Astronomy programs are held at the park throughout the year for visitors, and while Crystal Coast Stargazers offers stargazing cruises to the scenic Cape Lookout Lighthouse.