

25 Gorgeous Coastal National Parks

Cape Lookout National Seashore, North Carolina

Learn more about Cape Lookout National Seashore here.

The adventure to these undeveloped barrier islands three miles off the North Carolina shore begins with a trip on a ferry or a breezy boat ride from the mainland. Once you arrive, there's plenty to do, including fishing, bird-watching, camping, and climbing the Cape Lookout Lighthouse's 207 stairs to take in the view.