The Crystal Press on The Crystal Coast: Pierless Too

We wrote a little bit about Atlantic Beach in Reb's Free People Jumpsuit post, but here we will show you a few more photos of the house + beachfront views. When The Crystal Coast asked us to come along on this weekend adventure they affectionately referred to the house as the sandcastle, and truly, it was. Thanks to Blue Water, NC, we, along with other bloggers + photogs spent the weekend staying at Pierless Too. The 8 bedroom, 9.5 (yes, 9.5) bathroom house was a total dream and the views from the pool and the top deck were simply stunning!

Is there anything better than waking up at the beach and enjoying a cup of coffee on the porch overlooking the ocean? We don't think so. We spent lots of time on the pool deck (obviously) even though it wasn't quiteeee warm enough for us to swim. Besides the gorgeous views, I think one of the things we liked best about the house was that even though it's out on Atlantic Beach, you can be in Morehead City or Beaufort in a matter of minutes, with restaurants, shopping and more at your finger tips! (More about Beaufort up next in the last post of our Crystal Coast Series)

It may have been the time of year, as I mentioned before, but there was something so incredibly peaceful about the beach only being sprinkled with people taking walks with their family or enjoying the sunset. Sure, often times its great to be at the center of the “action” but for the purpose of the weekend – taking in the beauty of The Crystal Coast – this gorgeous house on this sometimes deserted stretch of beach was perfect.
