

Pet Friendly Places Where You Can Travel With Your Dog

Traveling with Your Best Friend

Sometimes the worst thing about vacation is that we have to leave our pets behind. But as people are taking more road trips and renting RVs, it's also more common to see man's best friend traveling along with the family. These places are welcoming dogs with open arms – and specialty treats – for those wanting to bring along their faithful companions.

The Crystal Coast – Southern Outer Banks, North Carolina

Not all beaches allow dogs to play on their sandy shores, but along the Crystal Coast of North Carolina, dogs will have ample room to stretch their legs. There are over 85 miles of pet-friendly beaches, lined with pet-friendly beach house rentals through companies like Emerald Isle Realty and Blue Water Realty. Most restaurants are also pet-friendly with al fresco dining, and there's even a coffee shop that welcomes dogs with lattes like the "Milk Bone".