Atlantic Beach, North Carolina

Atlantic Beach is set along North Carolina's "Crystal Coast," an 85-mile stretch that has 56 miles of protected beach. There aren't many budget options, but the Windjammer Inn is a hidden gem. Although the rooms are simple, everyone gets an oceanfront view and pool access, plus the ocean is just out front. When you're ready to go beyond the beach, rent a bike and make your way to Fort Macon State Park.

Lodging: $70 a night at the Windjammer Inn when splitting the cost with someone

Activities: $25 for an all-day bike rental from AB Bike & Beach Rentals

Food: $3.50; grab a lunchtime slice at Roma Pizza & Subs
