The regular meeting of the Arts, Culture & Heritage Tourism Advisory Committee was called to order by Chair Dave Castagnacci at 3:30 p.m., May 3, 2022.

Jennifer Sims took attendance, and the following members were present: Dave Castagnacci, Frank Gromling, and Debbie Holley. Bob Davis and Jaime Morris were absent.

Guests:

Paula Long

Staff Present:

Lori Campbell Baker, Andrew Booth, Jennifer Sims, and Connor Rand (Zoom)

Public Participation

Paula Long, a Planner with the City of Daytona Beach, spoke about new Committees that the city is putting together to focus on the city's cultural aspects.

Lori Campbell Baker introduced Andrew Booth, the new Director of Communications for the CVB. Castagnacci informed the Committee that Adrienne Barker and Stephanie Mason-Teague had resigned.

Consent Agenda

There was no quorum present, so the approval of the minutes from the February 3, 2022 meeting has been tabled until the November 3, 2022 meeting.

Committee Member Discussion

Castagnacci asked the Committee to invite people they may know to apply if they are interested in joining the Arts, Culture, & Heritage Tourism Committee.

Community Engagement

Castagnacci and the Committee discussed different ways to get the community more engaged with Arts & Culture in the area.

Arts & Culture Content and Updates

Booth let the Committee know that the Veterans Museum & Educational Center will reopen on June 4, 2022, at its new location at 302 Vermont Avenue in Daytona Beach. Also, Riverfront Esplanade will have its reopening ceremony on June 4, 2022.

New Business

Individual Committee members shared information and updates regarding the area's Arts & Culture community with the CVB staff.

Adjourn

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:41 p.m.
